THE POSTAL LAWS.

CHAPTER I.

ORGANIZATION AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled. That there be established, at the seat of the Government of the United States, a General Post Office, under the direction of a Postmaster General. The Postmaster General shall appoint two Assistants,* and such clerks+ as may be necessary for the performance of the business of his office, and as are authorized by law; and shall procure, and cause to be kept, a seal for the said office, which shall be affixed to commissions of postmasters, and used to authenticate all transcripts and copies which may be required from the Department. He shall establish post offices, and appoint; postmasters, at all such places as shall appear to him expedient, on the post roads that are, or may be established by law. He shall give his assistants, the postmasters, and all other persons whom he shall employ, or who may be employed, in any of the departments of the General Post Office, instructions relative to their duty. He shall provide for the carriage of the mail on all post roads that are, or may be established by law, and as often as he, having regard to the productiveness thereof, and other circumstances, shall think proper. He may direct the route or road, where there are more than one, between places designated by law for a post road, which route shall be considered the post road. He shall obtain, from the postmasters, their accounts and vouchers for their receipts and expenditures, once in three months, or oftener, with the balances thereon arising in favor of the General Post Office. He shall pay all expenses which may arise in conducting the post office, and in the conveyance of the mail, and all other necessary expenses arising on the collection of the revenue, and management of the General Post Office. He shall prosecute offences against the Post Office establishment. He shall, once in three months, renders to the Secretary of the Treasury a quarterly account of all the receipts and expenditures in the said Department, to be adjusted and settled as other public accounts. He shall, also, superintend the business of the Department, in all the duties that are, or may be, assigned to it. * * * -Sec. 1, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to decide on the official forms of all papers to be used by postmasters, and other officers or agents of the Post Office Department, concerned in its receipts and payments, and the manner and form of keeping and stating its accounts; to enforce the prompt rendition of the returns of postmasters, and of all certificates, acknowledgments, receipts, and other papers, by postmasters and contractors, relative to the accounts of the Department; to control, according to law, and subject to the settlement of the Auditor, the allowances to postmasters, the expenses of post offices, and all other expenses incident to the service of the Department; to regulate and direct the payment of the said allowances and expenses for which appropriations have been made; to superintend the disposition of the proceeds of post offices and other moneys of the Department; to prescribe the manner in which postmasters shall pay over their balances; to grant warrants for money to be paid into the Treasury, and out of the same, in pursuance of appropriations by law, to persons to whom the same shall be certified to be due by the said Auditor: Provided, That advances of necessary sums to defray expenses may be made by the Postmaster General to agents of the Department employed to investigate mail depredations, examine post routes and post offices, and perform other like services, to be charged by the Auditor for the Post Office Department, and be accounted for in the settlement of their accounts.—Sec. 9, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be employed by the Postmaster General a Third Assistant Postmaster General, who may receive and send letters and packets free of postage. —Sec. 20, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in case of the death, resignation, or absence of the Postmaster General, all his powers and duties shall devolve, for the time being, on the First Assistant Postmaster General.—Sec. 40, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That hereafter, as the office of Assistant Postmaster General, or either of them, shall be vacated, the appointment of his successor shall be made by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.—Sec. 3, Act of 3d March, 1853, establishing post routes.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed by the President, with the consent of the Senate, an Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department, whose duty it shall be to receive all accounts arising in ^{*} The law of July 2, 1836, (see Sec. 5 of this compilation,) authorizes a Third Assistant. That of 3d March, 1853, directs their appointment by the President and Senate; see No. 5 of this compilation.

[†] The clerks in the settling branch (Auditor's Office) are appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

^{$} Postmasters of offices yielding $1,000 per annum and upwards are appointed, under the Act of July 2, 1836, (see No. 7 below,) by the President and Senate.

^{$} The 8th Sec. of the Act of July 2, 1836, devolves this duty upon the Auditor.

the said Department, or relative thereto, to audit and settle the same, and certify their balances to the Postmaster General: Provided, That if either the Postmaster General, or any person whose account shall be settled, be dissatisfled therewith, he may, within twelve months, appeal to the First Comptroller of the Treasury, whose decision shall be final and conclusive. The said Auditor shall report to the Postmaster General, when required, the official forms of papers to be used by postmasters, and other officers or agents of the Department concerned in its receipts and payments, and the manner and form of keeping and stating its accounts. He shall keep and preserve all accounts, with the vouchers, after settlement. He shall promptly report to the Postmaster General all delinquencies of postmasters in paying over the proceeds of their offices. He shall close the accounts of the Department quarterly, and transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury quarterly statements of its receipts and expenditures. He shall register, charge, and countersign all warrants upon the Treasury for receipts and payments issued by the Postmaster General, when warranted by law. He shall perform such other duties, in relation to the financial concerns of the Department, as shall be assigned to him by the Secretary of the Treasury, [or Postmaster General,] and shall make to them respectively, such reports as either of them may require respecting the same. The said Auditor may frank, and receive free of postage, letters and packets under the regulations provided by law for other officers of the Government, And all letters and packets to and from the Chicf Engineer, which may relate to the business of his office, shall be free of postage.*-Sec. 8, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a deputy postmaster for each post office at which the commissions allowed to the postmaster amounted to one thousand dollars or upwards in the year ending the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, or which may, in any subsequent year, terminating on the thirtieth day of June, amount to or exceed that sum, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, unless sooner removed by the President .- Sec. 33, Act of July 2, 1836.

* * SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That no person shall hold the office of postmaster who shall not be an actual resident of the city or town wherein the office is situated, or the district of country usually supplied by said office. - Sec. 36, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General, and all other persons employed in the General Post Office, or in the care, custody, or conveyance of the mail, shall, previous to entering upon the dufies assigned to them, or the execution of their trusts, and before they shall be entitled to receive any emolument therefor, respectively take and subscribe the following oath, or affirmation before some magistrate, and cause a certificate thereof to be filed in the General Post Office: "I, A B, do swear or affirm, (as the case may be,) that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me, and abstain from every thing forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of the post office and post roads within the United States." Every person who shall be, in any manner, employed in the care, custody, conveyance, or management of the mail, shall be subject to all pains, penalties, and forfeitures for violating the injunctions, or neglecting the duties, required of him by the laws relating to the establishment of the post office and post roads, whether such person shall have taken the oath or affirmation, above prescribed, or not. Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That no fees or perquisites shall be received by any person employed in the General Post Office, on account of the duties to be performed by virtue of his appointment. +-Sec. 12, Act of 3 March, Sec. 11. And be it further enacted. That the postmasters, postriders, and drivers of the mail stages, shall be exempt from militia duties, and serving on juries, or any fine or penalty for neglect thereof.—Sec. 35, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That assistant postmasters and clerks regularly employed and engaged in post offices, shall be exempt from militia duty, and serving on juries, and from any fine or penalty for neglect thereof.-Sec. 34, Act of July 2, 1836.

That no greater sum shall be paid to any mail agent of any SEC. 13. Be it further enacted, description than one thousand dollars per annum, and no greater sum for all his travelling and incidental expenses than at the rate of two dollars for each day he shall be actually employed in the capacity of mail agent. P. O. appropriation, Act of 3 March, 1845.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to allow hereafter to the special agents of the Post Office Department the annual salary of sixteen hundred dollars. of 3 March, 1851.

That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, * * * to employ, when the service may require it, the assistant postmasters general as special agents, and to make them compensation and allowance therefor, not to exceed the amount expended by said agents as necessary travelling expenses while so employed. - Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1847.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General, upon the appointment of any postmaster, to require, and take of such postmaster, bond, with good and approved security, in such penalty as he may judge sufficient, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all the duties of such postmaster, required by law, or which may be required by any instruction or general rule for the government of the Department: Provided, however, That, if default shall be made by the postmaster aforesaid, at any time, and the Postmaster General shall fail to institute suit against such postmaster, and said sureties, for two years from and after such default shall be made, then, and in that case, the said sureties shall not be held liable to the United States, nor shall suit be instituted against them.§ Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That when any one or more of the sureties of a costmaster shall notify to the Postmaster General their desire to be released from their suretyship, or when the Postmaster General shall deem it necessary, he shall require the said postmaster to execute a new bond, with security which, when accepted by the Postmaster General, shall be as valid as the bond given upon the original appointment of said postmaster, and the sureties in the prior bond shall be released from responsibility for all acts or defaults of said postmaster, which may be done or committed subsequent to the acceptance of the new bond, the date of which shall be endorsed thereon: Provided, That payments made subsequent to the execution of the new bond by said postmaster shall be applied first to discharge any balance which may be due on the old bond, unless he shall, at the time of payment, expressly direct them to be applied to the credit of his new account.—Sec. 37, Act of 2 July, 1836.

[.] The Act of 3 March, 1845, /see Sec. 93 of this compilation,) repeals the privilege of these officers to frank; but the heads of the government bureaus are allowed to frank papers and documents on official business under the provisions of the Acts of 1847 and 1851. See notes to The 3d Sec. of Act of 3 March, 1839, has a more comprehensive provision on this subject. See No. 204.

[†] Following Sec. (No. 14) modifies this. § See provisions of following Sec., also of Nos. 184 and 185.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall, within sixty days after the making of any contract, cause a duplicate thereof to be lodged in the office of the Auditor of the Post Office Department. Upon the death, resignation, or removal of any postmaster, he shall cause his bond of office to be delivered to the said Auditor: and shall also cause to be promptly certified to him all establishments and discontinuances of post offices, and all appointments, deaths, resignations, and removals of postmasters, together with all orders and regulations which may originate a claim, or in any manner affect the accounts of the Department.—Sec. 11, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That all waters on which steamboats regularly pass from port to port, shall be considered and established as post roads, subject to the provisions contained in the several acts regulating the Post Office establishment.—Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1823.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall be authorized, in his discretion, to contract for carrying the mail, on the navigable canals of the several States, in all cases where, in his opinion, the public interest and convenience shall require it: and for the time during which mails may be earried on such canals, or any parts thereof, the same are hereby declared to be post roads.—Sec. 42, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 21. Resolved, That the Postmaster General shall be, and he is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to contract for earrying the mail on all the plank roads which have been, or shall be constructed in the United States; and in all cases when, in his opinion, the public interest and convenience require it; and that for the time during which mails may be carried on such plank roads, or any part thereof, the same shall be, and they are hereby declared to be, post roads of the United States.—Joint Resolution of July 12, 1852.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That all post routes which hereafter, within the term of three successive years, fail to yield one-fourth of the expense incident to their establishment, shall be discontinued by the Postmaster General, unless in cases where it may be necessary as a connection or continuance of a route or routes: Provided, also, That this Section shall not be so construed as to deprive the seat of justice, in each county, of one mail going to and from said town.*—Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 23. And be it further enacted, That every postmaster shall keep an office, in which one or more persons shall attend on every day on which a mail shall arrive, by land or water, as well as on other days, at such hours as the Postmaster General shall direct, for the purpose of performing the duties thereof; and it shall be the duty of the postmaster, at all reasonable hours, on every day of the week, to deliver, on demand, any letter, paper, or packet, to the person entitled to, or authorized to receive the same; and all letters brought to any post office half an hour before the time of making up the mail at such office, shall be forwarded therein, except at such post offices where, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, it requires more time for making up the mail, and which he shall accordingly prescribe; but this shall in no case exceed one hour.—Sec. 11, Act of 3 March, 1825.

CHAPTER II.

COMMISSIONS OF POSTMASTERS.

Sec. 25. Be it further enacted, That, * * * the Postmaster General may allow to the postmaster at New Orleans,† at the rate of eight hundred dollars a year in addition to his ordinary commissions. The Postmaster General is hereby authorized to allow to the postmaster of the city of Washington, in addition to the allowance made by this Act, for postage collected and for free letters received by him for delivery, a commission of five per cent. on the amount of mails distributed at his office: Provided, nevertheless, That the whole annual emolument of the said postmaster, including the extra compensation of eight hundred dollars which is hereby allowed him, shall be subject to the restrictions imposed by the forty-first Section of this Act.—Sec. 14, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 26. And be it further enacted, That, whenever the annual emoluments of any postmaster, after deducting therefrom the necessary expenditures, incident to his office, shall amount to more than two thousand dollars, the surplus shall be accounted for, and paid to the Postmaster General, and by him to be accounted for, in the same manner as other moneys accruing from the Post Office establishment.—Sec. 41, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 27. Be it further enacted, That in addition to returns now required to be rendered by postmasters, it shall be the duty of postmasters at New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and New Orleans, and the other several cities of the Union, each and every year hereafter, to render a quarter yearly account to the Postmaster General, under oath, in such form as the latter shall prescribe, for the purpose of giving full effect to this proviso, of all emoluments or sums by them respectively received for boxes or pigeon-holes, or other receptacles for letters or papers, and by them charged for to individuals; or for the delivery of letters or papers at or from any place in either of said cities, other than the actual post office of such city; and of all emoluments, receipts, and profits that have come to their hands by reason of keeping branch post offices in either of said cities; and if, from such accounting, it shall appear that the net amount received by either of the postmasters at either of such cities, for such boxes and pigeon-holes, and other receptacles for letters and papers, and for delivering letters or papers at or from any place in either of said cities, other than said post office, and by reason of keeping a branch post office in either of said cities, shall, in the aggregate, exceed the sum of three thousand* dollars in any one year, such excess shall be paid to the Postmaster General, for the use and purposes of the Post Office Department; and no postmaster shall, hereafter, under any pretence whatsoever, have, or receive, or retain for himself, in the aggregate, more than five thousand dollars per year, including salary, commissions, boxes, and all other fees, perquisites, and emoluments, of any name or character whatsoever, and for any service whatspever.—Sec. 2, Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill of May 18, 1842.

Sec. 28. Be it further enacted, That in lieu of commissions allowed deputy postmasters by the fourteenth Section of the Act of the third of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, the Postmaster General may allow on the proceeds of their respective offices, a commission not exceeding the following rates on the amount received in any one year, or a due proportion thereof for less than a year: * * * on all sums arising from the postage on newspapers, magazines, and pamphlets, fifty per cent.; on the amount of postages on letters or packets received for distribution, severif per cent.; Provided, That all allowances, commissions, or other emoluments shall be subject to the provisions of the forty-first Section of the Act which this is intended to amend; and that the annual compensation therein limited shall be computed for the fiscal year commencing on the first of July and ending the thirtieth of June each year, and that for any period less than a year the restrictions contained in said section shall be held to apply in a due proportion for such fractional period: And provided further, That the compensation to any deputy postmaster under the foregoing provisions (to be computed upon the receipt at his office of a larger sum) shall in no case fall short of the amount to which he would have been entitled under a smaller sum received at his office.—Sec. 1, Act of 1 March, 1847.

Sec. 29. Be it further enacted, That * * * it shall not be lawful to make any allowance or compensation to deputy postmasters in addition to their commissions as authorized by law, excepting the receipts from boxes, of which all beyond; two thousand dollars, shall be applied in defraying the expenses of their offices, and to be accounted for in the same manner as they are required to account for their commissions; and excepting the special allowance made by law to the postmasters at Washington City and New Orleans.;—Sec. 13, Act of 8 March, 1847.

SEC. 31. Be it further enacted, That in place of the compensation now allowed deputy postmasters, the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to allow them commissions, at the following rates, on the postage collected at their respective offices in each quarter of the year, and in due proportion for any period less than a quarter, viz.:

On any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, sixty per cent.; but any postmaster at whose office the mail is to arrive regularly, between the hours of nine o'clock at night and five o'clock in the morning, may be allowed seventy per cent. on the first hundred dollars.

On any sum over and above one hundred dollars, and not exceeding four hundred dollars, fifty per cent.

On any sum over and above four hundred dollars, but not exceeding twenty-four hundred dollars, forty per cent. And on all sums over twenty-four hundred dollars, fifteen per cent.

On the amount of postage on letters and packages received at a distributing office for distribution, twelve and one-half per cent. commission may be allowed.

Every postmaster whose compensation shall not exceed five hundred dollars in one quarter, shall be allowed one cent on every free letter delivered out of his office, except such as are for the postmaster himself. But the special allowance now made by law to the postmasters at New Orleans and Washington City shall not otherwise be either increased or diminished.

Each postmaster who shall be required to keep a register of the arrival and departure of the mails, shall be allowed ten cents for each monthly return which he makes to the Postmaster General.

Each postmaster may be allowed two mills for the delivery from his office to a subscriber of each newspaper not chargeable with postage: Provided, That to any postmaster of a distributing office at which the commissions, allowances, and emoluments, since the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have been insufficient to defray the actual and necessary expenses, and afford the postmaster the annual compensation derived from commissions at the office before said thirty-first of March, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, allow quarterly, from the date aforesaid, out of the postages collected at any such office, an amount sufficient to supply such deficiency: Provided further, That to any postmaster of a separating office, whose commissions, allowances, and emoluments may be found insufficient to provide the extra labor necessary to a prompt and efficient performance of the duties of separating and despatching the mails passing through his office, the Postmaster General may make such quarterly allowance, out of the postages collected at such office, as he may deem sufficient to compensate such extra labor: Provided further, That the commissions and allowances authorized by this Act shall be subject to the provisions of the forty-first Section of the Act entitled "An act to reduce into one the several acts establishing and regulating the Post Office Department:" And provided further, That the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, dispose of any quarterly returns of mails sent or received, which were made up previous to the first day of July, eighteen hundred and fifty, preserving the accounts current, and all vouchers accompanying such accounts, and use such portion of the proceeds thereof as may be necessary to defray the cost of separating and disposing of the same. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after the commencement of the next fiscal quarter after its passage. Act of June 22; 1854.

SEC. 32. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General may allow to the postmasters in the State of California, and in the Territorics of Oregon and Washington, from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, such sums of the postage collected at their respective offices as will, in a ition to the commissions, allowances, emoluments, be sufficient to defray the actual and necessary expenses of their offices.—Sec. 4, Act of July 27, 1854.

^{*} Sec. 13, Act of 3 March, 1847, (see Sec. 30 below,) restricts this allowance to $2,000, and consequently the limit of a postmaster's entire

SEC. 33. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby authorized and directed, in the settlement of the accounts of postmasters in the State of California and Territory of Oregon, serving as such previous to the thirtieth of June, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and fifty-three, to allow to such postmasters all just and reasonable expenses incurred by them in and about the business of their respective offices and the discharge of their official duties: Provided, That no allowance shall be made whereby the United States shall be charged with any indebtedness whatsoever.—Sec. 5, Act of July 27, 1854.

CHAPTER III.

CONTRACTS.

SEO. 34. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall cause a mail to be carried from the nearest post office on any established post road, to the Court House* of any county which is now, or may hereafter be, established in any of the States or Territories of the United States, and which is without a mail: and the road on which such mail shall be transported shall become a post road, and so continue, until the transportation thereon shall cease. It shall, also, be lawful for the Postmaster General to enter into contracts, for a term not exceeding four years, for extending the line of posts, and to authorize the persons so contracting, as a compensation for their expenses, to receive during the continuance of such contract, at rates not exceeding those for like distances established by this Act, all the postage which shall arise on letters, newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, and packets, conveyed by any such posts; and the roads, designated in such contracts, shall, during the continuance thereof, be deemed, and considered as post roads, within the provision of this Act:

* * * — Sec. 4, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 35. And be it further enacted, That no other than a free white person shall be employed in conveying the mail; and any contractor who shall employ, or permit any other than a free white person to convey the mail, shall, for every such offence, incur a penalty of twenty dollars.—Sec. 7, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 86. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, that any roads established, or which may hereafter be established as a post road, is obstructed by fences, gates, or bars, or other than those lawfully used on turnpike roads to collect their toll, and not kept in good repair, with proper bridges and ferries, where the same may be necessary, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to report the same to Congress with such information as can be obtained, to enable Congress to establish some other road instead of it, in the same main direction.—Sec. 8, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 37: And be it further enacted, That if any person shall, knowingly and wilfully, obstruct or retard the passage of the mail, or of any driver or carrier, or of any horse or carriage carrying the same, he shall, upon conviction of every such offence, pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars: and if any ferryman shall, by wilful negligence, or refusal to transport the mail across any ferry, delay the same, he shall forfeit and pay, for every ten minutes that the same shall be so delayed, a sum not exceeding ten dollars.—Sec. 9, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 38. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to give public notice,† in one newspaper published at the seat of Government of the United States, and in one or more of the newspapers published in the State or States, or Territory, where the contract is to be performed, for at least twelve‡ weeks before entering into any contract for carrying the mail, that such contract is intended to be made, and the day on which it is to be concluded, describing the places from and to which such mail is to be conveyed, the time at which it is to be made up, and the day and hour at which it is to be delivered. * * * Provided, That no contract shall be entered into for a longer term than four‡ years.—Sec. 10, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 39. And be it further enacted, That no postmaster, assistant postmaster, or clerk, employed in any post office, shall be a contractor, or concerned in a contract for carrying the mail: Provided, That this section shall not interfere with contracts heretofore made.§—Sec. 42, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 40. And be it further enacted, That no additional allowance shall be made, by the Postmaster General, to the contractor or carrier of any mail, on any route, over or beyond the amount stipulated in the contract entered into for the transportation of the mail on such route, unless additional service shall be required; and then no additional compensation shall be allowed, to exceed the exact proportion of the original amount to the additional duties required.

* * * * — Sec. 43, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 41. And beitfurther enacted, That any person or persons, who shall hereafter make any proposal in writing, to carry or transport the mail upon any route or routes, which may be advertised to be let, and such person or persons shall be determined by the Postmaster General to be entitled to the contract, by virtue of such proposition, and such person or persons shall fail or refuse to enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient security, to perform such contract within the time required by the Postmaster General, in such advertisement, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay so much money as shall be the difference between the amount contained in such proposal, and the amount the Postmaster General shall have to pay for the same transportation of the mail on such route or routes, which sum may be recovered by the Postmaster General in an action on the case.*—Sec. 34, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 42. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General, before advertising for proposals for the transportation of the mail, to form the best judgment practicable as to the mode, time, and frequency of transportation on each route, and to advertise accordingly. No consolidated or combination bid shall be received, and no additional compensation shall be made to any mail contractor, so as that the compensation for additional regular service shall exceed the exact proportion which the original compensation bears to the original services stipulated to be performed; and no extra allowance shall be made to any contractor, by the Postmaster General, for an increase of expedition in the transportation of the mail, unless thereby the employment of additional stock or carriers, by the contractor, shall be rendered necessary; and in such case, the additional compensation shall never bear a greater proportion to the additional stock or carriers rendered necessary, than the sum stipulated in the original contract bears to the stock and carriers necessarily employed in its execution; and when any extra service shall be ordered, the amount of the allowance therefor, in dollars and cents, shall be signified in the order for such service, and be forthwith entered upon the books of the Post Office Department, and no additional compensation shall be paid for any extra regular service rendered before the issuing of such order, and the making of such entry; and every order, entry, or memorandum whatever, on which any action of the Department is to be had, allowance made, or money paid, and every contract, paper, or obligation drawn up in said office, by any officer thereof, shall have affixed to it its true date; and every paper relating to contracts or allowances filed in said office shall have the date of its filing endorsed thereon. And whenever it shall become necessary to change the terms of any existing contract in any other manner than that designated in this Act, or to enter into a contract for the transportation of the mail at any other time than at the annual letting, the Postmaster General shall give notice; in one newspaper published at Washington City, and in one newspaper published as near as may be to the route on which the services are to be performed, for at least four weeks before changing or making such contract, inviting proposals therefor; which proposals shall be received and opened, and such proceedings thereon had, in all things as at the annual lettings: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General may make temporary contracts until a regular letting can take place.—Sec. 23, Act of Sec. 43. And be it further enacted, That proposals for mail contracts shall be delivered to the Department scaled, and shall be kept scaled until the biddings are closed, and shall then be opened and marked in the presence of the Postmaster General, and of one of the Assistant Postmasters General, or in the presence of two of the Assistant Postmasters General. And the contracts in all cases shall be awarded to the lowest bidder, except§ when his bid is not more than five per centum below that of the last contractor, on the route bid for, who shall have faithfully performed his contract: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General shall not be bound to consider the bid of any person who shall have wilfully or negligently failed to execute or perform a prior contract.—Sec. 24, Act of 2 July, 1836.

Sec. 44. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to have recorded in a well-bound book, a true and faithful abstract of offers made to him for carrying the mail, embracing as well those which are rejected, as those which are accepted. The said abstract shall contain the names of the party or parties offering, the terms on which he or they propose to carry the mail, the sum for which it is offered to contract, and the length of time the agreement is to continue. And it shall also be the duty of the Postmaster General to put on file and preserve the originals of the propositions of which abstracts are here directed to be made, and to report at each session of Congress a true copy from the said record of all offers made for carrying the mail as aforesaid.—Sec. 25, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 45. And be it further enacted, That if any person employed in the Post Office Department, or postmaster, shall become interested in any mail contract, or act as agent, with or without compensation, in any matter or thing relating to business in said Department, for any contractor, or person offering to become a contractor, he shall be forthwith dismissed from office, and shall be liable to pay so much money as would have been realized from said contract, to be recovered in an action of debt in any court having jurisdiction thereof, in the name of the United States, for the use of the Post Office Department; and it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to cause prosecution to be instituted.—Sec. 26, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 46. And be it further enacted, That every proposal for the transportation of the mail shall be accompanied by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation, in such time as may be prescribed by the Postmaster General, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed. No proposal shall be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty. If, after the acceptance of a proposal, and notification thereof to the bidder or bidders, he or they shall fail to enter into an obligation within the time prescribed by the Postmaster General, with good and sufficient sureties for the performance of the said service, then the Postmaster General shall proceed to contract with some other person or persons for the performance of the service, and shall forthwith cause the difference between the amount contained in the proposal so guarantied, and the amount for which he may have contracted for the performance of said service, for the whole period of the proposal, to be charged up against the said bidder or bidders, and his or their guarantor or guarantors, and the same may be immediately recovered by the United States, for the use of the Post Office Department, in an action of debt against either or all of the said persons. —Sec. 27, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 47. And be it further enacted, That no contract for the transportation of the mail shall knowingly be made by the Postmaster General, with any person who shall have entered into any combination, to prevent the making of any bid for a mail contract by any other person or persons; or who shall have made any agreement, or shall have given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever, or to do or not to do any thing whatever, in order to induce any other person or persons not to bid for a mail contract.

And if any person so offending be a mail contractor, he may be forthwith dismissed from the service of the Department: Provided, That whenever the Postmaster General shall exercise the power conferred on him by this section, he shall transmit a copy or statement of the evidence on which he acts to Congress, at its next session.—Sec. 28, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 48. And be it further enacted, That no person whose bid for the transportation of the mail may be accepted, shall receive any pay until he shall have executed his contract according to law and the regulations of the Department; nor shall any payment be made for any additional regular service in the transportation of the mail, unless the same shall have been rendered in obedience to a prior legal order of the Postmaster General.—Sec. 29, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 49. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to furnish to the postmasters at the termination of each route, a schedule, specifying the times of the arrival and departure at their offices, respectively, of each mail, a copy of which the postmaster shall post up in some conspicuous place in his office: and the Postmaster General shall also furnish a notice in like manner, of any change or alteration in the arrivals and departures which may be ordered by him. And it shall be the duty of every postmaster promptly to report to the Department every delinquency, neglect, or malpractice of the contractors, their agents or carriers, that may come to his knowledge. And the Postmaster General shall cause to be kept, and returned to the Department, at short and regular intervals, by postmasters at the ends of routes, and such others as he may think proper, registers, showing the exact times of the arrivals and departures of the mails.—Sec. 31, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 51. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby authorized, upon all mail routes over or upon which the amount of matter usually transported, or which may be offered or deposited in the post office, or post offices, for transportation, is or may become so great as to threaten materially to retard the progress or endanger the security of the letter mail, or to cause any considerable augmentation of the cost of transporting the whole mail at the present rate of speed, to provide for the separate and more secure conveyance of the letter mail, at a speed at least equal to that at which the mail is now transported over such route, taking care to allow in no case of any greater delay in the transportation of the other matters and things to be transported in the mail on any such route than may appear to be absolutely necessary, regard being had to the cost of expediting its transportation, and the means at his disposal or under his control for effecting the same.*—Sec. 4, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 52. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General in all future lettings of contracts for the transportation of the mail, to let the same, in every case, to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security of such transportation: nor shall any new contractor hereafter be required to purchase out, or take at a valuation, the stock or vehicles of any previous contractor for the same route.—
Sec. 18, Act of 3 March, 1845.

CHAPTER IV.

DEAD LETTERS.

SEO. 53. And be it further enacted, That the postmasters shall, respectively, publish,† at the expiration of every three months, or oftener, when the Postmaster General shall so direct, in one of the newspapers published at or nearest the place of his residence, for three successive weeks, a list of all the letters remaining in their respective offices, or instead thereof, shall make out a number of such lists, and cause them to be posted at such public places in their vicinity as shall appear to them best adapted for the information of the parties concerned: and at the expiration of the next three months shall send such of the said letters as then remain on hand, as dead letters, to the General Post Office, where the same shall be opened and inspected; and if any valuable papers, or matters of consequence, shall be found therein, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to return such letter to the writer thereof, or cause a descriptive list thereof to be inserted in one of the newspapers published at the place most convenient to the supposed residence of the owner, if within the United States; and such letter, and the contents, shall be preserved, to be delivered to the person to whom the same shall be addressed, upon payment of the postage, and the expense of publication. And if such letter contain money, the Postmaster General may appropriate it to the use of the Department, keeping an account thereof, and the amount shall be paid by the Department to the rightful claimant as soon as he shall be found.—Sec. 26. Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 54. And be it further enacted, That all newspapers conveyed in the mail shall be under cover, open at one end, * * * and should the publisher of any newspaper, after being three months previously notified that his paper is not taken out of the office to which it is sent for delivery, continue to forward such paper in the mail, the postmaster to whose office such paper is sent, may dispose of the same, for the postages, unless the publisher shall pay it. * * * * —Sec. 30, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 55. And be it further enacted, That lists of letters remaining uncalled for in any post office, in any city, town, or village where a newspaper shall be printed, shall hereafter be published once only in the newspaper which, being issued weekly or oftener, shall have the largest circulation within the range of delivery of said office, to be decided by the postmaster at such office, at such time, and under such regulations, as the Postmaster General shall prescribe; and at a charge of one cent for each letter advertised. And the postmaster at such office is hereby directed to post in a conspicuous place in his office a copy of such list, on the day or day after the publication thereof; and if the publisher of any such paper shall refuse to publish the list of letters as provided in this section, the postmaster may designate some other paper for such purpose. Such lists of letters shall be published once in every six weeks, and as much oftener, not exceeding once a week, as the Postmaster General may specially direct: Provided, That the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, direct the publication of German and other foreign letters in any newspaper printed in the German or any other foreign language, which publication shall be either in lieu of, or in addition to the publication of the list of such letters in the manner first in this section provided, as the Postmaster General shall direct.—Sec. 5, Act of 3 March, 1851.

Sec. 56. And be it further enacted, That when a list of uncalled-for letters shall be published in any newspaper printed in any foreign language, said list shall be published in such newspaper having the largest circulation within the range of delivery of said office.—Sec. 6, Act of 30 Aug., 1852.

Sec. 57. And be it further enacted, That if the publisher of any periodical, after being three months previously notified that his publication is not taken out of the office to which it is sent for delivery, continue to forward such publication in the mail, the postmaster at whose office such publication is sent may dispose of the same for the postage, unless the publisher shall pay it; and whenever any printed matter of any description, received during one quarter of the fiscal year, shall have remained in the office without being called for during the whole of any succeeding quarter, the postmaster at such office shall sell the same, and credit the proceeds of such sale in his quarterly accounts, under such regulations, and after such notice as the Post Office Department shall prescribe.*—Sec. 4, Act of 30 Aug., 1852.

SEC. 53. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to make such arrangement as he may deem advisable, by causing letters sent to California and Oregon to be advertised free of expense to the United States, and by the issuing of circulars to postmasters, and causing the same to be published, to insure, as far as possible, the delivery of letters sent by mail from the Atlantic States to California, to the individuals to whom they are directed.

-Sec. 5, Act of March 3, 1853.

Sec. 59. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby authorized to cause the dead letters which may accumulate in the State of California, and in the Territories of Oregon and Washington, after the 30th of June, 1854, to be returned in periods not less than quarter yearly to the post office at San Francisco, to be there opened and examined under the direction of the postmaster at that office, who shall, according to such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, return to the Post Office Department such of said letters as shall be found to contain money, valuable papers, or matters of consequence, to be disposed of according to law, and destroy such letters as shall be found to contain nothing of value: Provided, however, That no dead letter shall be opened which the postal arrangements of the United States with foreign countries require to be returned unopened to such countries respectively.—Sec. 3, Act of July 27, 1854.

CHAPTER V.

FINANCE.

SEC. 60. Be it further enacted, That the revenues arising in the Post Office Department, and all debts due to the same, shall, when collected, be paid, under the direction of the Postmaster General, into the Treasury of the United States.—Sec. 1, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 61. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall submit to Congress at the next and each succeeding annual session, specific estimates of the sums of money expected to be required for the service of the Department in the subsequent year, commencing on the first day of July, under the following heads, viz.: "Compensation of Postmasters," "Transportation of the Mails," "Ship, steamboat, and way letters," "Wrapping paper," "Office furniture," "Advertising," "Mail-bags," "Blanks," "Mail-locks, keys, and stamps," "Mail depredations and special agents," "Clerks for offices," and "Miscellaneous." And the Postmaster General shall render an account to Congress, at each succeeding annual session, of the amounts actually expended for each of the purposes above specified.—Sec. 2, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 62. And be it further enacted, That the aggregate sum required "for the service of the Post Office Department" in each year shall be appropriated by law out of the receipts of the Post Office Department into the Treasury shall be to the credit of the said appropriation.—Sec. 8, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 63. And be it further enacted, That the sums appropriated for the service aforesaid shall be paid by the Treasurer in the manner herein directed: Provided, That the compensation of postmasters, the expenses of post offices, and such other expenses of the Department for which appropriations have been made, as may be incurred by postmasters, may be deducted out of the proceeds of their offices, under the direction of the Postmaster General: And provided, also, That all charges against the Department by postmasters, on account of such expenses, shall be submitted for examination and settlement to the Auditor herein provided for; and that no such deduction shall be valid, unless the expenditure so deducted be found to have been made in conformity to law: And provided, also, That the Postmaster General shall have power to transfer debts due on account of the Department, by postmasters and others, in satisfaction of the legal demands for which appropriations have been made, of such contractors who may be creditors of the Department, as shall have given bonds, with security, to refund any moneys that may come into their hands over and above the amount which may be found due to them on the settlement of their accounts.—Sec. 4, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 64. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the United States shall give receipts for all moneys received by him to the credit of the appropriation for the service of the Post Office Department; which receipt shall be endorsed upon warrants drawn by the Postmaster General, and without such warrant no acknowledgment for money received as aforesaid shall be valid. - Sec. 5, Act of 2 July, 1836.

Sec. 65. And be it further enacted, That the appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department shall be disbursed by the Treasurer out of the moneys paid into the Treasury for the service of the Post Office Department, upon the warrants of the Postmaster General, registered and countersigned as herein provided, and expressing on their faces the appropriation to which they should be charged .- Sec. 6, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEO. 66. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer shall render his accounts of the moneys received and paid by him on account of the Post Office Department, quarterly, to the Auditor for the Post Office Department, hereinafter provided for, and shall transmit copies of the same, when adjusted by him, to the two Houses of Congress .- Sec. 7, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 67. And be it further enacted, That the Auditor for the Post Office Department shall state and certify, quarterly, to the Postmaster General, accounts of the moneys paid pursuant to appropriations, in each year, by postmasters out of the proceeds of their offices, towards the expenses of the Department, under each of the heads of the said expenses specified in the second section of this Act; upon which the Postmaster General shall issue warrants to the Treasurer of the United States, as in case of the receipt and payment of the said moneys into and out of the Treasury, in order that the same may be carried to the credit and debit of the appropriation for the service of the Post Office Department, on the books of the Auditor for said Department .- Sec. 10, Act of 2 July, 1836.

SEC. 68. And be it further enucted, That the accounts of the Post Office Department shall be kept in such manner as to exhibit the amount of its revenues, derived respectively from "Letter postages," "Newspapers and pamphlets," and "Fines;" and the amount of its expenditures, for each of the following objects, namely: "Compensation of postmasters," "Transportation of the mails," "Ship, steamboat, and way letters," "Wrapping paper," "Office furniture," "Advertising," "Mail bags," "Blanks, mail locks, keys, and stamps," "Mail depredations and special agents," "Clerks for offices," and "Miscellaneous."-Sec. 12, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 69. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to make to Congress, at each annual session thereof, the following several reports:

First. A report of all contracts made for the transportation of the mail within the preceding year, stating in each case of contract its date and duration, the name of the contractor, the route or routes embraced in the contract, with the length of each, with the times of arrival and departure at the ends of each route, the mode of transportation contracted for, and the price stipulated to be paid by the Department: also, a statement of all such land and water mails as may have been established or ordered by the Department within the year preceding, other than those let to contract, at the annual lettings of mail contracts, specifying, in each case, the route or water course on which the mail is established, the name of the person employed to transport it, the mode of transportation, the amount paid or to be paid, and the proposed duration of the order or contract.

Second. A report of all allowances made to contractors, within the year preceding, beyond the sums originally stipulated in their respective contracts, and the reasons for the same; and of all orders made by the Department, whereby additional expense is, or will be incurred, beyond the original contract price on any land or water route, specifying, in each case, the route to which the order relates, the name of the contractor, the original service provided by the contract, the original price, the date of the order for additional service, the additional service required, and the additional allowance therefor; also, a report of all curtailments of expenses effected by the Department, within the preceding year, specifying, in each case, the same particulars as required in cases of additional allowances.

Third. A report of all incidental expenses of the Department for the year ending on the thirtieth day of June preceding, arranged according to the several objects, as for "Wrapping paper," "Office furniture," "Advertising," "Mail bags," "Blanks," "Mail locks, keys, and stamps," "Mail depredations and special agents," "Clerks for offices," "Miscellaneous," showing the sum paid under each head of expenditures, and the names of the persons to whom paid, except only that the names of the persons employed in detecting depredations on the mail, and other confidential agents, need not be disclosed in said report.

Fourth. A report of the finances of the Post Office Department for the year ending on the thirtieth day of June preceding, showing the whole amount of balances due to the Department at the beginning of the year, from the postmasters and all others, the whole amount of postage that accrued within the year, the whole amount of the engagements and liabilities of the Department for mail transportation during the year, the amount actually paid during the year for and on account of mail transportation, and otherwise, stating separately so much of the said amount as may have been paid on account of the transportation of the mail, and for other debts for the same object, in preceding Fifth. A report of all fines imposed, and deductions from the pay of contractors made during the preceding year, for failures to deliver the mail, or for any other cause, stating the names of the delinquent contractors, the nature of the delinquency, the route on which it occurred, the time when it occurred, the time when the fine was imposed, and whether the fine has been remitted, or order for deduction rescinded, and for what reason.—Sec. 22, Act of July 2, 1836.

CHAPTER VI.

FOREIGN MAILS.

Sec. 70. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to make provision, where it may be necessary, for the receipt of all letters and packets intended to be conveyed by any ship or vessel beyond sea, or from any port in the United States to another port therein; and the letters so received shall be formed into a mail, sealed up, and directed to the postmaster of the port to which such ship or vessel shall be bound; and for every letter or packet so received there shall be paid, at the time of its reception, a postage of one cent,* which shall be for the use of the postmasters respectively receiving the same. And the Postmaster General may make arrangements with the postmasters in any foreign country for the reciprocal receipt and delivery of letters and packets through the post office.+—Sec. 34, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 71. Be it resolved, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to make such arrangements as may be deemed expedient, with the Post Office Department of the British Government, for the transmission of the British mail in its unbroken state or condition between Boston and Canada.

Be it further resolved, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to enter into such arrangement or arrangements with the proper authorities of France and Germany, and the owners or agents of vessels plying regularly between those countries and the United States, whereby a safe and, as near as possible, a regular direct mail communication, under official guaranty between the United States and the continent of Europe, viz.: the ports of Bremen in Germany and Havre in France, and such other principal ports on said Continent as the Postmaster General may deem most proper, shall be secured—so that the entire inland and foreign postage on letters and all other mail matter, sent over sea from and to the United States, to and from any part of France, and of the States comprehended within the German Customs Union, and of those countries on the Continent between which and France, and of the said Germanic States, there exists a continued arrangement of the like kind, may be paid at the place where they are respectively mailed or received.—Joint Resolution of 15 June, 1844.

Sec. 72. Be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized, under the restrictions and provisions of the existing laws, to contract for the transportation of the United States mail between any of the ports of the United States and a port or ports of any foreign power, whenever, in his opinion, the public interest will thereby be promoted; and it shall be his duty to report to the next ensuing Congress a copy of each of said contracts, with a statement of the amount of postage derived under the same, as far as the returns of the Department will enable him to do. And such contracts may be made, if it shall appear to the Postmaster General to be required by the public interest, for any greater period than four years, and not exceeding ten years.—Sec. 1, Act of 3 March, 1845.

Sec. 73. And be it further enacted, That all such contracts shall be made with citizens of the United States, and the mail to be transported in American vessels, by American citizens. Each contract entered into under the provisions of this Act, besides the usual stipulations for the right of the Postmaster General to discontinue the same, shall contain the further stipulation that it may, at any time, be terminated by a joint resolution of the two Houses of Congress.—Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 74. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General, or the Secretary of State, be, and he is hereby, authorized to empower the consuls of the United States to pay the foreign postage of such letters destined for the United States, as may be detained at the ports of foreign countries for the non-payment of postage; which postage shall be by the consul marked as paid by him, and the amount thereof shall be collected in the United States, as other postage, on the delivery of the letters, and repaid to said consul, or credited on his account at the State Department.—Sec. 6, Act. of 3 March, 1845.

Sec. 75 And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall, in all cases of offers to contract for carrying the mail between any of the ports of the United States and any foreign port or place, give the preference to such bidder for the contract as shall propose to carry the mail in a steamship or ships, and the said contractor stipulating to deliver said ship or ships to the United States, or to their proper officer, upon demand made, for the purpose of being converted into a vessel or vessels of war; the United States being bound, on their part, to pay to said owner or owners the fair full value of every such ship or vessel at the time of such delivery; said value to be ascertained by four appraisers to be appointed, two by the President of the United States, and two by the owner or owners; and in case of disagreement among said appraisers, the President of the United States to select and appoint an umpire, who shall fix the value.—Sec. 7, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 76. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General may, if he shall doem it to be for the public interest, make contracts to continue not exceeding ten years, for the transportation of the mail from place to place in the United States in steamboats by sea and on the Gulf of Mexico and on the Mississippi River from the mouth thereof up to the city of New Orleans, on the conditions specified in the last preceding section of this Act.—Sec. S, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 77. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to contract for transporting a mail from Charleston, South Carolina, to Chagres, touching at St. Augustine and Key West, and also at Havana, in the Island of Cuba, if deemed expedient, and across the Islamus of Panama, and from thence to Astoria, or the mouth of the Columbia River, touching at Monterey, St. Francisco, and such other places on the coast as the Postmaster General may direct; the mail to be conveyed from Charleston to Chagres, and from Panama to Astoria, in steamships, and to be transported each way once every two months, or oftener, as the public interest may require: Provided, That the expenditure for said service shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars per annum.—Sec. 6, Act of 3 March, 1847.

SEC. 78. And be it further enacted, That any contract made in pursuance of this Act shall provide for the purchase by the United States, of the steamships to be employed in conveying the mail, at its option, agreeably to the provisions of an act, entitled, "An act to provide for the transportation of the mail between the United States and foreign counries, and for other purposes," approved the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-five: Provided, That the departure and return of said mail may, at the discretion of the Postmaster General, be either from Charleston, New York, Savannah, Pensacola, or New Orleans, as may be deemed most consistent with the public interest.—Sec. 8, Act of 3 March, 1847.

SEC. 79. Be it further enacted, * * * That the Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President of the United States, shall be, and he hereby is, authorized to reduce or enlarge, from time to time, the rates of postage* upon all letters and other mailable matter conveyed between the United States and any foreign country, for the purpose of making better postal arrangements with other governments or counteracting any adverse measures affecting our postal intercourse with foreign countries; * * * —Sec. 2, Act of 3 March. 1851.

SEC. S0. And be it further enacted, That to secure the regular transmission of the mail to and from foreign countries, the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized and required to impose fines on contractors for any unreasonable or unnecessary delay in the departure of such mails or in the performance of the trip: Provided, That the fine for any one default shall not exceed one half of the contract price paid for the trip.—Sec. 4, Act of June 27, 1848.

SEC. 81. And be it further enacted, That in case the person or persons, or the directors of any incorporated company, who have entered into any contract, or who may hereafter enter into any contract, with the Postmaster General for conveying the mail of the United States to any foreign country in pursuance of the act entitled, "An act to provide for the transportation of the mail between the United States and foreign countries and for other purposes," approved the third day of March, eighteen hundred and forty-five, or of any other act, in which said contract there is a stipulation on the part of such contract to be employed in conveying the mail, shall decline to sell and deliver to the United States such ship or ships, or shall refuse to name and appoint appraisers to value the same agreeably to the provisions of said act, or the same having been appraised and valued, shall refuse to convey and deliver said ship or ships to the United States, on the payment, or tender of payment, by the United States, of the sum at which the said ship or ships may have been appraised and valued, such person or persons so offending shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, to be recovered in any proper action, for the use of the Treasury of the United States; and in case of refusal or inability to pay the same, shall be liable to be imprisoned not exceeding one year at the discretion of the court rendering judgment for such penalty.—Sec. 8, Act of June 27, 1848.

SEC. 82. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any contractor for transporting the mail to any foreign country to assign or transfer his contracts; and all such assignments or transfers shall be null and void: Provided, That assignments and transfers which have been made and accepted by the Postmaster General, or the Secretary of the Navy, before the passage of this Act, shall not be affected by this Section.—Sec. 5, Act of June 27, 1848.

SEC. 83. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to enter into a contract for the transportation of the United States mail on board of the steam vessels which at present ply regularly between Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, and Halifax, in Nova Scotia, upon such terms as may appear to him reasonable: Provided, That the contracts authorized by this Section shall be let to the lowest bidder according to the provisions of the existing laws: And provided further, That the amount paid shall in no case exceed the amount of postage derived from the said mails.—Sec. 2, Act of 31 Aug., 1852.

SEC. 84. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to enter into contracts, or to make suitable arrangements for transporting through any foreign country the mails of the United States, running from and to any point in the said United States: Provided, That such contracts as shall be made under the authority conferred by this Section, shall not be for a longer period than four years, and that, in making them, the Postmaster General shall be bound to select the speediest, safest, and most economical route: Provided further, That such contract shall be subject to be revoked and annulled whenever any new road or cand shall be cut or opened, affording a speedier, more economical, and equally as safe means of communication between the point of departure and the point of destination of the mail to be transported; and that, in such case, a fair indemnity be awarded to the parties concerned: And provided further, That before making such contracts, notice shall be given during sixty days, by advertisements in the usual manner, for inviting proposals for mail contracts.—Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1851.

SEC. 85. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General may from time to time, by and with the advice and consent of the President, make any arrangements which may be deemed just and expedient for allowing the mails of Canada, or of any other Province, State, or country adjoining the United States, to be carried or transported at the expense of the Province, State, or country to which such mails belong, over any part or portion of the territory of the United States, from one point in the Province, State, or country to which such mails belong, to any other point in the same, upon obtaining the same privileges for the transportation of the mails of the United States through the Province, State, or country to which such privileges may at any time to annulled by the President of the United States, or by joint resolution of the two Houses of Congress, from and after the expiration of one month next succeeding the day on which the notice of the act of the President or of the joint resolution of the two Houses shall be given to the chief executive officer or head of the Post Office Department of the Province, State, or country whose privilege is to be thereby annulled.—Sec. 6, Act of 31 Aug., 1852.

Sec. 86. And be it further enacted, That every mail of any Province, State, or country having the privilege authorized to be granted in and by the next preceding section, shall, while in the territories of the United States, be deemed and taken to be a mail of the United States, so far as to make any violation thereof, any depredation thereon, or any act or offence in respect thereto, or any part thereof, which would be punishable under the existing laws of the United States, in case the same had been a mail or part of a mail of the United States, an offence of the same grade, and punishable in the same manner, and to the same extent, as though the said mails were those of the United States: and in any indictment for such act or offence, the said mails or any part thereof may be alleged to be, and on the trial of any such indictment they shall be, deemed and held to be mails or parts of mails of the United States.—Sec. 7, Act of 31 Aug, 1852.

CHAPTER VII.

FRANKING PRIVILEGE.

SEC. 87. And be it further enacted, That letters and packets to and from the following officers of the United States, shall be received and conveyed by post free of postage: Each postmaster, provided each of his letters or packets shall not exceed half an ounce in weight; each member of the Senate, and each member and delegate of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States; the Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives, provided each letter or packet (except documents printed by the order of either House of Congress), shall not exceed two ounces in weight, and during their actual attendance in any session of Congress, and sixty days before and after such session, and in case of excess of weight, that excess alone shall be paid for: the President of the United States, Vice-President; the Secretaries of State, of the Treasury, of War, of the Navy; Attorney General; Postmaster General, and the Assistants Postmaster General; the Comptrollers of the Treasury, Auditors, Register, Treasurer, and Commissioners of the General Land Office; and such individuals who shall have been, or may hereafter be, President of the United States; and each may receive newspapers by post, free of postage: Provided, That postmasters shall not receive, free of postage, more than one daily newspaper each, or what is equivalent thereto; nor shall members of the Senate, or of the House of Representatives, the Clerk of the House, or Secretary of the Senate, receive newspapers free of postage, after the privilege of franking shall cease.*—Sec. 27, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 88. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall frank any letter or letters, other than those written by himself, or by his order on the business of his office, he shall, on conviction thereof, pay a fine of ten dollars, and it shall be the especial duty of postmasters to prosecute for said offence: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of State, Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, and Postmaster General, may frank letters or packets on official business, prepared in any other public office, in the absence of the principal thereof. And if any person, having the right to receive his letters free of postage, shall receive enclosed to him, any letter or packet addressed to a person not having that right, it shall be his duty to return the same to the post office, marking thereon the place from whence it came, that it may be charged with postage. And if any person shall counterfeit the hand writing or frank of any person, or cause the same to be done, in order to avoid the payment of postage, each person, so offending, shall pay, for every such offence, five hundred dollars.†—Sec. 28, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 89. And be itfurther enacted, That the Commissioners of the Navy Board, the Adjutant General, Commissary General, Inspectors General, Quartermaster General, Paymaster General, the Secretary of the Senate, Clerk of the House of Representatives, and the Superintendent of the Patent Office, be authorized to frank, and to receive letters and packets by post, free of postage, and that no other persons or officers, excepting those enumerated herein, and in the act "to reduce into one the several acts establishing and regulating the Post Office Department," passed on the third of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, shall be authorized to frank or to receive letters through the mail free of postage.‡—Sec. 4, Act of 2 March, 1827.

Sec. 90. And be it further enacted, That no postmaster or assistant postmaster shall act as agent for lottery offices or under any color of purchase, or otherwise, vend lottery tickets; nor shall any postmaster receive free of postage, or frank, lottery schemes, circulars, or tickets. For a violation of this provision, the person offending shall suffer a penalty of fifty dollars. —Sec. 6, Act of 2 March, 1827.

SEC. 91. Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the governors of the several States to transmit by mail, free of postage, all laws and reports, whether bound or unbound, and all records and documents of their respective States which may be directed by the legislatures of the several States, to be transmitted to the executives of other States and the governor of the State transmitting the same shall, in addition to his frank, endorse the kind of book or document enclosed, and direct the same to the governor of the State to which the same may be sent.—Act of June 30, 1834.

SEC. 92. And be it further enacted, That no postmaster shall receive free of postage, or frank any letter or packet composed of, or containing anything other than paper or money; and for a violation of this provision, the offender shall be dismissed from office, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction, pay a fine of twenty dollars.

* * * * — Sec. 36, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 93. And be it further enacted, That the twenty-seventh section of the act of Congress entitled "An act to re-

^{} The franking privilege was repealed by the 5th Section of the Act of March 3, 1845, (See Sec. 93 below,) with the exceptions specified in Sections 94 to 98. duce into one the several acts for establishing and regulating the Post Office Department," approved and signed the third day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and all other acts and parts of acts granting and conferring upon any person whatsoever the right or privilege to receive and transmit through the mail, free of postage, letters, packets, newspapers, periodicals, or other matters, be, and the same are hereby, utterly abrogated and repealed.—Sec. 5, Act of March 3, 1845.

SEC. 94. Be it further enacted, That from and after the first day of July next! members of Congress and delegates from Territories may receive letters, not exceeding two ounces in weight, free of postage, during the recess of Congress, any thing to the contrary in this Act notwithstanding; and the same franking privilege which is granted by this Act to the members of the two houses of Congress, is hereby extended to the Vice President of the United States;

* * * — Sec. 1, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 95. And be it further enucted, That the three Assistant Postmasters General shall be entitled to have remitted by the postmaster in Washington all postage charged upon letters, packages, or other matter received by them, respectively, through the mail, touching the business of the Post Office Department, or the particular branch of that business, committed to them, respectively; and each of the said Assistant Postmasters General shall be, and hereby is, authorized to transmit through the mail, free of postage, any letters, packages, or other matters relating exclusively to his official duties, or to the business of the Post Office Department; but he shall, in every such case, endorse on the back of the letter or package so to be sent free of postage, over his own signature, the words "official business." And for any such endorsement falsely made, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay three hundred dollars. And the several deputy postmasters throughout the United States shall be authorized to charge,; and have allowed to them in the settlement of their accounts with the Post Office Department, all postage which they may have paid or had charged to them, respectively, for letters, packages, or other matters received by them on the business of their respective offices, or of the Post Office Department, upon a verification on oath of their accounts for the same, and the transmission of the charged letters as vouchers; and the several deputy postmasters shall be, and hereby are, authorized to send through the mail, free of postage, all letters and packages which it may be their duty, or they may have occasion to transmit to any person or place, and which shall relate exclusively to the business of the respective offices, or to the business of the Post Office Department; but in every such case the deputy postmaster sending any such letter or package shall endorse thereon, over his own signature, the words "Post Office business." And for any and every such endorsement falsely made, the person making the same shall forfeit and pay three hundred dollars. -Sec. 6, Act of 3 March, 1845.

Sec. 96. And be it further enacted, That the Act of Congress entitled "An act authorizing the governors of the several States to transmit by mail certain books and documents," approved June the thirtieth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall remain and continue in full force, any thing hereinbefore to the contrary notwithstanding; and the members of Congress, the delegates from the Territories, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, shall be, and they are hereby, authorized, to transmit, free of postage, to any post office within the United States, or the Territories thereof, any documents which have been or may be printed by order of either House of Congress, any thing in this law to the contrary notwithstanding.—Sec. 7, Act of 8 March, 1845.

Sec. 97. And be it further enacted, That each member of the Senate, each member of the House of Representatives, and each delegate from a Territory of the United States, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, may, during each session of Congress, and for a period of thirty days before the commencement and thirty days after the end of each and every session of Congress, send and receive through the mail, free of postage, any letter, newspaper, or packet, not exceeding two ounces in weight; and all postage charged upon any letters, packages, petitions, memorials, or other matters or things received during any session of Congress by any Senator, member, or delegate of the House of Representatives, touching his official or legislative duties, by reason of any excess of weight, above two ounces, of the matter or thing so received, shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the House of which the person receiving the same may be a member. And they shall have the right to frank written letters from themselves during the whole year, as now authorized by law—Sec. 8, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 98. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal the laws heretofore enacted, granting the franking privilege to the President of the United States when in office, and to all ex-Presidents, and to the widows of the former Presidents Madison and Harrison.—Sec. 23, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That all members of Congress, delegates from Territories, the Vice President of the United States, the Secretary of the Senata, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, shall have the power to send and receive public documents free of postage during their term of office, and that the said members and delegates shall have the power to send and receive public documents free of postage up to the first Monday in December following the expiration of their term of office.—Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1847.

SEC. 100. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives shall have the power to receive, as well as to send, all letters and packages, not weighing over two ounces, free of postage, during their term of office.—Sec. 4, Act of 3 March, 1847.

Sec. 101. And be it further enacted, That members of Congress shall have the power to receive, as well as to send, all letters and packages, not weighing over two ounces, free of postage, up to the first Monday in December following the expiration of their term of office.—Sec. 5, Act of 3 March, 1847.

Sec. 102. Be it further enacted, * * * * That each deputy postmaster, whose compensation for the last preceding year did not exceed two hundred dollars, may send through the mail all letters written by himself, and receive through the mail all written communications addressed to himself on his private business which shall not exceed in weight one half ounce, free of postage. * * * * — Sec. 1. Act of 2 March, 1847.

^{*} Exception in favor of Governors of States and members of Congress, and in favor of Presidents and former Presidents, and Mrs. Madison and Mrs. Ha rison; and privilege extended to postmasters whose compensation is less than $200 per aunum. See Sections 94, 95, 96, 97, 93.

[†] Sections 97-99 and 101 extend this privilege.

[‡] This authority to charge is no longer in force. See Sec. 102 for special provision for postmasters whose compensation does not exceed $200 a year.

Sec. 103. Be it further enacted, That, * * * in compensation for such mail services as may be performed for the several departments of the Government, there shall be paid to the Post Office Department, from the Treasury, for each year's service, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, which is hereby appropriated for that purpose, out of any unappropriated money in the Treasury.*—Sec. 12, Act of 3 March, 1847.

SEC. 104. Be it further enacted, That * * * such publications or books as have been or may be published, procured, or purchased by order of either House of Congress, or a joint resolution of the two houses, shall be considered as public documents, and entitled to be franked as such; * * —Sec. 13, Act of 3 March, 1847.

Sec. 105. Be it further enacted, That all letters and packages to and from Sarah Polk, relict of the late James K. Polk, shall be received and conveyed by post, free of postage, for and during her life.—Act of January 10, 1850.

SEC. 107. Be it further enacted, * * * * that postmasters at the office of delivery are hereby authorized, and it shall be their duty to remove the wrappers and envelopes from all printed matter and pamphlets not charged with letter postage, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is upon or connected with any such printed matter or in such package any matter or thing which would authorize or require the charge of a higher rate of postage thereon. And all publishers of pamphlets, periodicals, magazines, and newspapers which shall not exceed sixteen ounces in weight, shall be allowed to interchange their publications; reciprocally free of postage: Provided, That such interchange shall be confined to a single copy of each publication: And provided also, That said publishers may enclose in their publications the bills for subscription thereto, without any additional charge for postage; * * * -Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1851.

Sec. 108. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid to the Post Office Department, in further payment and compensation for the mail service performed for the two Houses of Congress and the other Departments and offices of the Government in the transportation of free matter, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars per year, which shall be paid quarterly, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated; * * * -Sec. 8, Act of 3 March, 1851.

Sec. 109. Be it resolved, That from and after the present session of Congress, the Congressional Globe and appendix, which contain the laws and debates thereon, shall pass free through the mails so long as the same shall be published by order of Congress: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the circulation of the Daily Globe free of postage.

* * * — Joint Resolution of Aug. 6, 1852.

SEC. 110. Be it further enacted, That the Superintendent of the Coast Survey, and the Assistant in charge of the office of the Coast Survey, shall be authorized to receive and transmit, free of postage, by the mails, all letters and documents in relation to their public duties.—Act of Feb. 2, 1854.

Sec. 111. And be it further enacted, That all books, maps, and charts, or other publications entered for copyright, and which, under the Act of August tenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, are required to be deposited in the Library of Congress, and in the Smithsonian Institution, may be sent through the mail free of postage under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe.—Sec. 5, Act of 3 March, 1855.

SEC. 112 And be it further enacted, That the right to frank letters and documents, now allowed by law to the Vice President, be continued to those who have heretofore or shall hereafter hold that office, during life.—Sec. 4, Act of 3d March, 1855.

CHAPTER VIII.

LETTER CARRIERS.

SEC. 113. And be it further enacted, That letter carriers shall be employed at such post offices as the Postmaster General shall direct, for the delivery of letters; in the places respectively where such post offices are established; and, for the delivery of each such letter, the letter carrier may receive, of the person to whom the delivery is made, two cents: Provided, That no letter shall be delivered to such letter carrier for delivery, addressed to any person who shall have lodged at the post office a written request that the letter shall be detained in the office. And, for every letter lodged at any post office, not to be carried by post, but to be delivered at the place where it is so lodged, the postmaster shall receive one cents of the person to whom it shall be delivered.—Sec. 36, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 114. And be it further enacted, That * * * the letter carriers employed at post offices shall be authorized to receive for each newspaper delivered by them, an half cent, and no more. —Sec. 2, Act of March 2, 1827.

SEC. 115. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall be authorized, whenever the same may be proper for the accommodation of the public in any city, to employ letter carriers for the delivery of letters received at the post office in said city; except such as the persons to whom they are addressed may have requested, in writing, addressed to the postmaster, to be retained in the post office; and for the receipt of letters at such places, in the said city as the Postmaster General may direct, and for the deposit of the same in the post office; and for the delivery by a carrier of each letter received from the post office, the person to whom the same may be delivered shall pay not exceeding two cents; and for the delivery of each newspaper and pamphlet, one half cent; and for every letter received by a carrier to be deposited in the post office, there shall be paid to him, at the time of the receipt, not exceeding two cents; all of which receipts, by the carriers in any city, shall, if the Postmaster General so direct, be accounted for to the postmaster of said city, to constitute a fund for the compensation of the said carriers, and be paid to them in such proportions and manner as the Postmaster General may direct. Each of the said carriers shall give bond with sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster General, for the safe custody and delivery of letters, and for the due account and payment of all moneys received by him.—See. 41, Act July 2, 1836.

Sec. 116. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be authorized and directed, when in his judgment the public interest or convenience may require it, to establish one or more branch post offices, to facilitate the operation of the post office in any city or place which in the opinion of the Postmaster General may require such additional accommodation for the convenience of the inhabitants; and it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to prescribe the rules and regulations for the branch post offices which may be established by virtue of this Act; and no additional postage shall be charged for the receipt or delivery of any letter or packet at such branch post office.—Sec. 10, Act of 3 March, 1847.

Sec. 117. And be it further enacted, That it shall be in the power of the Postmaster General, at all post offices where the postmasters are appointed by the President of the United States, to establish post routes within the cities or towns, to provide for conveying letters to the post office, by establishing suitable and convenient places of deposit, and by employing carriers to receive and deposit them in the post office; and at all such offices it shall be in his power to cause letters to be delivered by suitable earriers, to be appointed by him for that purpose, for which not exceeding one or two cents shall be charged, to be paid by the person receiving or sending the same; and all sums so received shall be paid into the Post Office Department: Provided, The amount of compensation allowed by the Postmaster General to carriers shall in no case exceed the amount paid into the Treasury, by each town or city, under the provisions of this section.—Sec. 10, Act of 3 March, 1851.

SEC. 113. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be and he is hereby authorized to empower the special agents of the Post Office Department in the State of California and in the Territories of Oregon and Washington to appoint letter carriers for the delivery of letters from any post office in the said State or Territories, and to allow any letter carrier so appointed to demand and receive a sum for all letters, newspapers, or other mailable matter not more than may be recommended by the postmaster for whose office such letter carrier may be appointed: Provided, That not more than twenty-five cents shall be charged for any letter, newspaper, or ounce of other mailable matter. All such appointments may be determined and rates of compensation modified within the limits aforesaid, whenever the same is found expedient in the opinion of the appointing agent: And it is further provided, That all such appointments and contracts shall be subject to the approval of the Postmaster General; and upon notice to any carrier of his rejection by the Postmaster General, his appointment and contract shall be determined; and that all letter carriers appointed in pursuance of this Act shall be subject to the provisions of the forty-first section of the Act entitled "An Act to change the organization of the Post Office Department, and to provide more effectually for the settlement of the accounts thereof," approved July 2, 1836, except as herein otherwise provided. Provided, That no letter or letters or other mailable matter shall be delivered by any postmaster to said carriers unless requested in writing by the person or persons to whom said letters or other mailable matter may be directed.—Sec. 1, Act of July 27, 1854.

SEC. 119. And be it further enacted, That each and every letter-carrier route which may be established under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed a post route during its continuance; and the provisions contained in the ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, and fifteenth sections of an Act entitled "An Act to reduce the rates of postage, to limit the use and correct the abuse of the franking privilege, and for the prevention of frauds on the revenues of the Post Office Department," approved March 8, 1845, and the fifth and eighth sections of an Act entitled "An Act to establish certain post roads, and for other purposes," approved August 31, 1852, are hereby made applicable to said letter-carrier routes.—Sec. 27, Act of July, 1854.

bond, or warrant, draft, bill, or promissory note, covenant, contract, or agreement, whatsoever, for, or relating to, the payment of money, or the delivery of any article of value, or the performance of any act, matter, or thing, or any receipt, release, acquittance, or discharge of, or from, any debt, covenant, or decmand, or any part thereof, or any copy of any record of any judgment, or decree, in any court of law, or chancery, or any execution which may have issued thereon, or any copy of any other record, or any other article of value, or any writing representing the same; or if any such person employed as aforesaid, shall steal, or take, any of the same out of any letter, packet, bag or mail of letters, that shall come to his or her possession, such person shall, on conviction for any such offence, be imprisoned not less than ten years, nor exceeding twenty-one years; and if any person who shall have taken charge of the mails of the United States shall quit or desert the same before such person delivers it into the post office kept at the termination of the route, or some known mail carrier, or agent of the General Post Office, authorized to receive the same, every such person, so offending, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars for every such offence; and if any person concerned in carrying the mail of the United States shall collect, receive, or carry any letter, or packet, or shall cause or procure the same to be done, contrary to this Act, every such offender shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars.—Sec. 21, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 121. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall rob any carrier of the mail of the United States, or other person entrusted therewith, of such mail, or of part thereof, such offender or offenders shall, on conviction, be imprisoned not less than five years nor exceeding ten years; and, if convicted a second time of a like offence, he or they shall suffer death; or, if, in effecting such robbery of the mail, the first time, the offender shall wound the person having custody thereof, or put his life in jeopardy, by the use of dangerous weapons, such offender or offenders shall suffer death. And if any person shall attempt to rob the mail of the United States, by assaulting the person having custody thereof, shooting at him or his horse or mule, or threatening him with dangerous weapons, and the robbery is not effected, every such offender, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment, not less than two years nor exceeding ten years. And, if any person shall steal the mail, or shall steal or take from, or out of, any mail, or from, or out of, any post office, any letter or packet; or, if any person shall take the mail, or any letter or packet therefrom, or from any post office, whether with or without the consent of the person having custody thereof, and shall open, embezzle, or destroy any such mail, letter, or packet, the same containing any article of value, or evidence of any debt, due, demand, right or claim, or any release, receipt, acquittance, or discharge, or any other article, paper, or thing, mentioned and described in the twenty-first section of this Act; or, if any person shall, by fraud or deception, obtain from any person having custody thereof, any mail, letter, or packet, containing any article of value, or evidence thereof, or either of the writings referred to, or next abovementioned, such offender or offenders, on conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned, not less than two, nor exceeding ten years. And if any person shall take any letter or packet, not containing any article of value, nor evidence thereof, out of a post office, or shall open any letter or packet, which shall have been in a post office, or in custody of a mail carrier, before it shall have been delivered to the person to whom it is directed, with a design to obstruct the correspondence, to pry into another's business or secrets; or shall secrete, embezzic, or destroy, any such mail, letter, or packet, such offender, upon conviction, shall pay, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned not exceeding twelve months.—Sec. 22, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 122. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall rip, cut, tear, burn, or otherwise injure, any valise, portmanteau, or other bag, used, or designed to be used, by any person acting under the authority of the Postmaster General, or any person in whom his powers are vested, in a conveyance of any mail, letter, packet, or newspaper or pamphlet, or shall draw or break any staple, or loosen any part of any lock, chain, or strap, attached to, or belouging to any such valise, portmanteau, or bag, with an intent to rob, or steal any mail, letter, packet, newspaper, or pamphlet, or to render either of the same insecure, every such offender, upon conviction, shall, for every such offence, pay a sum not less than one hundred dollars, nor exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one year, nor exceeding three years, at the discretion of the court before whom such conviction is had.—Sec. 23, Act of 3 March, 1825.

if any person employed in any department of the post office * Sec. 123. Le it further enacted, That, shall improperly detain, delay, embezzle, or destroy any newspaper, or shall permit any other person to do the like, or shall open, or permit any other to open, any mail or packet of newspapers, not directed to the office where he is employed, such offender shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, for every such offence. And if any other person shall open any mail or packet of newspapers, or shall embezzle or destroy the same, not being directed to such person, or not being authorized to receive or open the same, such offender shall, on conviction thereof, pay a sum not exceeding twenty dollars for every such offence. And if any person shall take, or steal, any packet, bag, or mail of newspapers, from, or out of any post office, or from any person having custody thereof, such person shall, on conviction, be imprisoned, not exceeding three months, for every such offence, to be kept at hard labor during the period of such imprisonment. If any person shall enclose or conceal a letter, or other thing, or any memorandum in writing, in a newspaper, pamphlet, or magazine, or in any package of newspapers, pamphlets, or magazines, or make any writing or memorandum thereon, which he shall have delivered into any post office, or to any person for that purpose, in order that the same may be carried by post, free of letter postage, he shall forfeit the sum of five dollars for every such offence: and the letter, newspaper, package, memorandum, or other thing, shall not be delivered to the person to whom it is directed until the amount of single letter postage is paid for each article of which the pack-* -Sec. 30, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 124. And be it further enacted, That every person, who, from and after the passage of this Act, shall procure, and advise, or assist, in the doing or perpetration of any of the acts or crimes by this Act forbidden, shall be subject to the same penalties and punishments as the persons are subject to, who shall actually do or perpetrate any of the said acts or crimes, according to the provisions of this Act.—Sec. 24, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 125. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall be imprisoned, by a judgment of court, under and by virtue of the twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, or twenty-fourth sections of this Act, shall be kept at hard labor during the period of such imprisonment.—Sec. 25, Act of 8 March, 1825.

SEO. 126. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary penalties and forfeitures, incurred under this Act, shall be one-half for the use of the person or persons informing and prosecuting for the same, and the other half to the use of the United States, and shall be paid over to the Postmaster General, and accounted for by him as other moneys of the Department.—Sec. 33, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 127. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall buy, receive, or conceal, or aid in buying, receiving, or concealing, any article mentioned in the twenty-first section of this Act, knowing the same to have been stolen or embezzled from the mail of the United States, or out of any post office, or from any person having the custody of the said mail, or the letters sent or to be sent therein; or if any person shall be accessory after the fact to any robbery of the carrier of the mail of the United States, or other person entrusted therewith, of such mail, or of part thereof, every person, so offending, shall, on conviction thereof, pay a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, and be imprisoned and confined to hard labor for any time not exceeding ten years. And such person or persons, so offending, may be tried and convicted without the principal offender* being first tried, provided such principal offender has fled from justice, or can not be found to be put on his trial.—Sec. 45, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 128. And be it further enacted, That if any postmaster shall unlawfully detain in his office any letter, package, pamphlet, or newspaper, with intent to prevent the arrival and delivery of the same to the person or persons to whom such letter, package, pamphlet, or newspaper may be addressed or directed in the usual course of the transportation of the mail along the route; or if any postmaster shall, with intent as aforesaid, give a preference to any letter, package, pamphlet, or newspaper over another which may pass through his office, by forwarding the one and retaining the other, he shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months, and shall, moreover, be forever thereafter incapable of holding the office of postmaster in the United States.—Sec. 32. Act of 2 July, 1836.

SEC. 129. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall be accessory after the fact, to the offence of stealing or taking the mail of the United States, or of stealing or taking any letter, or packet, or enclosure in any letter or packet sent or to be sent in the mail of the United States, from any post office in the United States, or from the mail of the United States, by any person or persons whatever, every person so offending as accessory, shall, on conviction thereof, pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding five years; and such accessory after the fact may be tried, convicted, and punished in the district in which his offence was committed, though the principal offence may have been committed in another district, and before the trial of the principal offender: Provided, such principal offender has fled from justice, or can not be arrested to be put upon his trial. +—Sec. 38, Act of July 2, 1886.

SEC. 130. And be it further enacted, That all moneys taken from the mails of the United States by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which have come or may hereafter come into the possession or custody of any of the agents of the Post Office Department, or any other officers of the United States, or any other person or persons whatever, shall be paid to the order of the Postmaster General, to be kept by him as other moneys of the Post Office Department, to and for the use and benefit of the rightful owner, to be paid whenever satisfactory proof thereof shall be made; and upon the failure of any person in the employment of the United States to pay over such moneys when demanded, the person so refusing shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by law against defaulting officers.—Sec. 2, Act of 1 March, 1847.

Sec. 131. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall steal, purloin, embezzle, or obtain by any false pretence, or shall aid or assist in stealing, purloining, embezzling, or obtaining by any false pretenee, or shall knowingly and unlawfully make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be unlawfully made, forged, or counterfeited, or knowingly aid or assist in falsely and unlawfully making, forging, or counterfeiting any key suited to any lock which has been or shall be adopted for use by the Post Office Department of the United States, and which shall be in use on any of the mails or mail bags of the said Post Office Department, or shall have in his possession any such mail key or any such mail lock, with the intent unlawfully or improperly to use, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same, or cause the same to be unlawfully or improperly used, sold, or otherwise disposed of, or who being employed in the manufacture of the locks or keys for the use of the said Post Office Department, whether as contractor or otherwise, shall deliver or cause to be delivered any finished or unfinished key or lock used or designed by the said Post Office Department, or the interior part of any such mail lock, to any person not duly authorized under the hand of the Postmaster General of the United States and the seal of the said Post Office Department to receive the same (unless such person so receiving the same shall be the contractor for furnishing such locks and keys, or engaged in the manufacture thereof in the manner authorized by the contract, or the agent for such manufacturer), such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding ten years.—Sec. 3, Act of 31 August, 1852.

Sec. 132. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall steal, purloin, or embezzle any mail bags in use by or belonging to the Post Office Department of the United States, or any other property in use by or belonging to the said Post Office Department, or shall, for any luore, gain, or convenience, appropriate any such property to his own, or any other than its proper use, or for any lucre or gain shall convey away any such property to the hindrance or detriment of the public service of the United States, the person so offending, his counsellors, aiders, and abettors (knowing of and privy to any offence aforesaid) shall, on conviction thereof, if the value of such property shall exceed twenty-five dollars, be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three years; or, if the value of such property shall be less than twenty-five dollars, shall be imprisoned not more than one year, or be fined not less than ten dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars for every such offence.—Sec. 4, Act of 31 August, 1852.

SEC. 123. And be it further enacted, That all fines and penalties imposed for any violation of any law relating to the Post Office Department shall, when collected or recovered, be paid into the Treasury to the credit of the United States for the use of the Post Office Department, excepting, however, such part thereof as may by law belong to the party informing or prosecuting for the same.—Sec. 10, Act of 31 August, 1852.

SEC. 134. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the Postmaster General shall be satisfied that either money or property, stolen from the United States mail, shall have been exchanged for other money or property, and has been, upon the conviction of the thief, received at his Department, he shall have authority, upon satisfactory evidence that the same justly belonged to any individual, firm, or corporation, to pay over and deliver such money or property to the owner thereof.—See. 3, Act of March 3, 1853.

CHAPTER X.

MAILABLE MATTER.

Sec. 135. And be it further enacted, That no postmaster shall receive, to be conveyed by the mail, any packet which shall weigh more than three pounds; and the postage marked on any letter or packet, and charged in the post bill which may accompany the same, shall be conclusive evidence in favor of the postmaster who delivers the same, of the lawful postage thereon, unless such letter or packet shall be opened in the presence of the postmaster or his clerk.* Any memorandum which shall be written on a newspaper or other printed paper, pamphlet, or magazine, and transmitted by mail, shall be charged with letter postage.—S c. 18, Act of 8 March, 1825.

Sec. 136. And be it further enacted, That no newspapers shall be received by the postmasters, to be conveyed by post, unless they are sufficiently dried, and enclosed in proper wrappers, on which, besides the direction, shall be noted the number of papers which are enclosed for subscribers, and the number for printers: Provided, That the number need not be endorsed, if the publisher shall agree to furnish the postmaster, at the close of each quarter, a certified statement of the number of papers sent in the mail, chargeable with postage. The Postmaster General in any contract he may enter into for the conveyance of the mail, may authorize the person with whom such contract is to be made, to carry newspapers, magazines, and pamphlets, other than those conveyed in the mail: Provided, That no preference shall be given to the publisher of one newspaper over that of another, in the same place.—Sec. 30, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 137. And be it further enacted, That "mailable matter," and "matter properly transmittable by mail," shall be deemed and taken to mean all letters and newspapers, and all magazines and pamphlets periodically published, or which may be published in regular series or in successive numbers, under the same title, though at irregular intervals, and all other written or printed matter whereof each copy or number shall not exceed eight ounces in weight, except bank notes, sent in packages or bundles, without written letters accompanying them; but bound books, of any size, shall not be held to be included within the meaning of these terms. And any packet or packets, of whatever size or weight, being made up of any such mailable matter, shall subject all persons concerned in transporting the same to all the penaltics of this law, equally as if it or they were not so made up into a packet or packages. But nothing in this Act contained shall be so construed as to prohibit any person whatever from transporting, or causing to be transported, over any mail route, on any road or way parallel thereto, any books, magazines, or pamphlets, or newspapers, not marked, directed, or intended for immediate distribution to subscribers or others, but intended for sale as merchandise, and transported in the usual mode of transporting merchandise over the particular route used, and sent or consigned to some bona fide dealer or agent for the sale thereof; nor shall any thing herein be construed to interfere with the right of any traveller to have and take with him or her, for his or her own use, any book, pamphlet, magazine, or newspaper.—Sec. 15, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 138. And be it further enacted, That the term "newspaper," hereinbefore used, shall be, and the same is hereby defined to be, any printed publication, issued in numbers, consisting of not more than two sheets, and published at short stated intervals of not more than one month, conveying intelligence of passing events, and bona fide extras and supplements of any such publication. And nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the free exchange of newspapers between the publishers thereof, as provided for under the twenty-ninth section of the Act entitled "An Act to reduce into one the several acts for establishing and regulating the Post Office Department, approved the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five."—Sec. 16, Act of 3 March, 1845.

Sec. 139. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to deposite in any post office, to be conveyed in the mail, two or more letters directed to different persons enclosed in the same envelope or packet; and every person so offending shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered by action qui tam, one half for the use of the informer, and the other half for the use of the Post Office Department: Provided, That this prohibition shall not apply to any letter or packet directed to any foreign country, and all newspapers conveyed in the mail shall be subject to postage, except those sent by way of exchange between the publishers of newspapers, and except those franked by persons enjoying the franking privilege; * and it shall be lawful for any contractor, or mail carrier, to transport newspapers out of the mail for sale or distribution to subscribers. * * * -Sec. 18, Act of 3 March, 1847. * * bound books, and parcels of printed matter not weigh-Sec. 140. And be it further enacted, That * ing over thirty-two ounces, shall be deemed mailable matter. * * -Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1851.

^{*} The 2d Section of the Act of August 30, 1852, (see No. 168,) makes books bound or unbound, not weighing over four pounds, mailable matter. Also, public documents are unrestricted as to weight.

[†] Reference to Sec. 140 shows the limit in this particular is sixteen ounces under Act of 3 March, 1851.

[‡] Books to amount of four pounds mailable under Act of 30 August, 1852. See Sec. 168. ‡ Limit for books extended to four pounds by Act of 1852. See Sec. 168.

[§] See also Sections 136 and 137.

CHAPTER XI.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

SEC. 141. And be it further enacted, That to facilitate the transportation of letters in the mail, the Postmaster General be authorized to prepare postage stamps, which when attached to any letter or packet, shall be evidence of the payment of the postage chargeable on such letter, which said stamps the Postmaster General may deliver to any deputy postmaster who may apply for the same, the deputy postmaster paying, or becoming accountable for the amount of the stamps so received by him; and if any of said stamps shall not be used, but be returned to the General Post Office, the amount so returned shall be credited to such deputy postmaster; and such deputy postmaster may sell or dispose of any stamps so received by him, to any person who may wish to use the same; but it shall not be lawful for any deputy postmaster to prepare, use, or dispose of any postage stamps not authorized by and received from the Postmaster General; and any person who shall falsely and fraudulently make, utter, or forge any postage stamp with the intent to defraud the Post Office Department, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and on conviction shall be subject to the same punishment as is provided in the twenty-first section of the Act approved the third day of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, entitled "An Act to reduce into one the several acts establishing and regulating the Post Office Department."—Sec. 11, Act of 3 March, 1847.

SEC. 142. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to provide and furnish to all deputy postmasters and to all other persons applying and paying therefor, suitable postage stamps, of the denomination of three cents, and of such other denominations as he may think expedient to facilitate the prepayment of the postages provided for in this Act; and any person who shall forge or counterfeit any postage stamp provided or furnished under the provisions of this or any former Act, whether the same are impressed or printed on or attached to envelopes or not, or any die, plate, or engraving therefor, or shall make or print, or knowingly use or sell, or have in his possession with intent to use or sell, any such false, forged, or counterfeited die, plate, engraving, or postage stamp, or who shall make or print, or authorize or procure to be made or printed, any postage stamps of the kind provided and furnished by the Postmaster General as aforesaid, without the especial authority and direction of the Post Office Department, or who, after such postage stamps have been printed, shall, with intent to defraud the revenues of the Post Office Department, deliver any postage stamps to any person or persons other than such as shall be authorized to receive the same by an instrument of writing duly executed under the hand of the Postmaster General, and the seal of the Post Office Department, shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of felony, and be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and the expenses of procuring and providing all such postage stamps and letter envelopes, as are provided for or authorized by this Act, shall be paid, after being adjusted by the Auditor of the Post Office Department, on the certificate of the Postmaster General, out of any money in the Treasury arising from the revenues of the Post Office Department.-Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1851.

SEC. 143. And be itt further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every postmaster to cause to be defaced,* in such manner as the Postmaster General shall direct, all postage stamps attached to letters deposited in his office for delivery, or to be sent by mail; and if any postmaster, sending letters in the mail with postage stamps attached, shall omit to deface the same, it shall be the duty of the postmaster to whose office such letters shall be sent for delivery to deface the stamps and report the delinquent postmaster to the Postmaster General. And if any person shall use or attempt to use, in prepayment of postage, any postage stamp which shall have been before used for like purposes, such person shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars for every such offence, to be recovered in the name of the United States, in any court of competent jurisdiction.—Sec. 4, Act of 3 March, 1851.

SEC. 144. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall forge or counterfeit, or shall utter or use knowingly, any counterfeit stamp of the Post Office Department of the United States issued by authority of this Act, or by any other act of Congress, within the United States, or the post office stamp of any foreign government, he shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof in any court having jurisdiction of the same, shall undergo a confinement at hard labor for any length of time not less than two years, nor more than ten, at the discretion of the court.—Sec. 5. Act of 3 March., 1845.

SEC. 145. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to provide and furnish to all postmasters and other persons applying and paying therefore, suitable letter envelopes, with such water-marks or other guards against counterfeits as he may deem expedient, and with one or more suitable postage stamps, with such device and of such denominations and value as he may direct, printed or impressed thereon; which envelopes shall be sold at the cost of procuring and furnishing the same, as near as may be, with the addition of the value or denomination of the postage stamps so printed or impressed thereon or attached thereto, as aforesaid; and letters, when enclosed in such envelope with postage stamps printed or impressed thereon (the postage stamp or stamps in every such case being of the value, denomination, or amount required to prepay the postage which would be chargeable on such letters and envelopes if sent by mail to the place of their destination under the provisions of the laws then in force, and such stamps and envelopes not having been before used), shall pass in the mails as prepaid letters; and all letters enclosed in such envelopes as shall be provided and furnished by the Postmaster General, as first in this section prescribed, and with postage stamps thereon as aforesaid (and such postage stamps on such envelopes being equal in value and amount to the rates of postage to which such letters would be liable if sent by mail, and such postage stamps and envelopes not having been before used), may be sent, conveyed, and delivered otherwise than by post or mail* notwithstanding any prohibition thereof under any existing law: Provided, That the said envelope shall be duly sealed, or otherwise firmly and securely closed, so that such letter can not be taken therefrom without tearing or destroying such envelope, and the same duly directed and addressed, and the date of such letter, or the receipt or transmission thereof, to be written or stamped, or otherwise appear on such envelope.—Sec. 8, Act of 31 August, 1852.

Sec. 146. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall forge or counterfeit any postage stamp printed or impressed upon any letter envelope authorized by the eighth section of an Act entitled "An Act to establish certain post roads and for other purposes," approved August 31st, 1852, or by any other act, or who shall counterfeit any die, plate, or engraving therefor, or who shall make or print, or knowingly use or sell, or have in his possession with intent to use or sell, any such false, forged, or counterfeited die, plate, engraving, or stamped envelope, or who shall make or knowingly use or sell, or have in his possession with intent to use or sell, any paper bearing the water-mark of such letter envelopes, or any fraudulent imitation thereof, or who shall make or print, or authorize or procure to be made or printed, any stamped or printed letter envelope of the kind provided by the Postmaster General under the authority aforesaid, without the especial direction of the Post Office Department, or who, after such letter envelopes have been prepared or printed, shall, with intent to defraud the revenues of the Post Office Department, deliver any such letter envelopes to any person or persons other than such as shall be authorized to receive the same by instrument of writing, duly executed under the hand of the Postmaster General and the seal of the Post Office Department, shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of felony, and be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.—Sec. 7, Act of March 8, 1858.

SEC. 147. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every postmaster to cause to be defaced,† in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, all letter envelopes with postage stamps thereon, which may be deposited in his office for conveyance in the mail; and if any postmaster sending such envelopes in the mail shall omit to deface the same, it shall be the duty of the postmaster to whose office such envelopes shall be sent for delivery to deface them, and report the delinquent postmaster to the Postmaster General. And if any person shall use, or attempt to use, for the conveyance of any letter or other mailable matter or thing, over any post road of the United States, either by mail or otherwise, any such stamped letter envelope which has been before used for a like purpose, such person shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered, in the name of the United States, in any court having competent jurisdiction.—Sec. 8, Act of March 3, 1858.

SEC. 148. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any postmaster or other person to sell any postage stamp or stamped envelope for any larger sum than that indicated upon the face of such postage stamp, or for a larger sum than that charged therefor by the Post Office Department; and any person who shall violate this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than ten nor more than five hundred dollars. This Act to take effect and be in force from and after the commencement of the next fiscal quarter after its passage: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to alter the laws in relation to the franking privilege.—Sec. 2, Act of 3 March, 1855.

CHAPTER XII.

PRIVATE EXPRESSES.

Sec. 149. And be it further enacted, That no stage or other vehicle, which regularly performs trips on a post road, or on a road parallel to it, shall convey letters; nor shall any packet boat or other vessel, which regularly plies on a water declared to be a post road, except such as relates to some part of the cargo. For the violation of this provision, the owner of the carriage, or other vehicle, or vessel, shall incur the penalty of fifty dollars. And the person who has charge of such carriage, or other vehicle, or vessel, may be prosecuted under this section, and the property in his charge may be levied on and sold, in satisfaction of the penalty and costs of suit: Provided, That it shall be lawful for any one to send letters by special messenger.—Sec. 19, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 150. And be it further enacted, That no person, other than the Postmaster General, or his authorized agents, shall set up any foot or horse post, for the conveyance of letters and packets, upon any post road, which is or may be established as such by law. And every person who shall offend herein, shall incur a penalty of not exceeding fifty dollars, for each letter or packet so carried.—Sec. 8, Act of March 2, 1827.

Sec. 151. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person to carry or transport any letter, packet, newspaper, or printed circular or price current (except newspapers in use, and not intended for circulation in the country to which such vessel may be bound) on board the vessels that may hereafter transport the United States mail. as provided for in this Act; and for every violation of this provision, a penalty of five hundred dollars is hereby imposed, to be recovered by presentment, by information, or qui tum action—one half for the use of the informer and the other half for the use of the Post Office Department.—Sec. 4, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 152. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to establish any private express or expresses for the conveyance, nor in any manner to cause to be conveyed, or provide for the conveyance or transportation, by regular trips, or at stated periods or intervals, from one city, town, or other place, to any other city, town, or place, in the United States, between and from and to which cities, towns, or other places, the United

Under this section letters enclosed in stamped envelopes may be sent out of the mail. A letter with a postage stamp merely can not be so sent.
 See further provisions on this head in No. 143.

States mail is regularly transported, under the authority of the Post Office Department, of any letters, packets, or packages of letters, or other matter properly transmittable in the United States mail, except newspapers,* pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals; and each and every person offending against this provision, or aiding and assisting therein, or acting as such private express, shall, for each time any letter or letters, packet or packages, or other matter properly transmittable by mail, except newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals, shall or may be, by him, her, or them, or through his, her, or their means or instrumentality, in whole or in part, conveyed or transported contrary to the true intent, spirit, and meaning of this section, forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.—Sec. 9, Act of 3 March, 1845.

Szo. 153. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any stage-coach, railroad car, steamboat, packetboat, or other vehicle or vessel, nor any of the owners, managers, servants, or crews of either, which regularly perform trips at stated periods on a post route, or between two or more cities, towns, or other places, from one to the other of which the United States mail is regularly conveyed under the authority of the Post Office Department, to transport or convey, otherwise than in the mail, any letter or letters, packet or packages of letters, or other mailable matter whatsoever' except such as may have relation to some part of the cargo of such steamboat, packet-boat, or other vessel, or to some article at the same time conveyed by the same stage-coach, railroad car, or other vehicle, and excepting also, newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals; and for every such offence, the owner or owners of the stage coach, railroad car, steamboat, packet boat, or other vehicle or vessel, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars; and the driver, captain, conductor, or person having charge of any such stage coach, railroad car, steamboat, packet boat, or other vehicle or vessel, at the time of the commission of any such offence, and who shall not at that time be the owner thereof, in whole or in part, shall, in like manner, forfeit and pay, in every such case of offence, the sum of fifty dollars.—Sec. 10, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 154. And be it further enacted, That the owner or owners of every stage coach, railroad car, steamboat, or other vehicle or vessel, which shall, with the knowledge of any owner or owners, in whole or in part, or with the knowledge or connivance of the driver, conductor, captain, or other person having charge of any such stage coach, railroad car, steamboat, or other vessel or vehicle, convey or transport any person or persons acting or employed as a private express for the conveyance of letters, packets, or packages of letters, or other mailable matter, and actually in possession of such mailable matter, for the purpose of transportation, contrary to the spirit, true intent, and meaning of the preceding sections of this law, shall be subject to the like fines and penaltics as are hereinbefore provided and directed in the case of persons acting as such private expresses, and of persons employing the same; but nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prohibit the conveyance or transmission of letters, packets, or packages, or other matter, to any part of the United States, by private hands, no compensation being tendered or received therefor in any way, or by a special messenger employed only for the single particular occasion.—Sec. 11, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 155. And be it further enacted, That all persons whatsoever who shall, after the passage of this Act, transmit by any private express, or other means by this Act declared to be unlawful, any letter or letters, package or packages, or other mailable matter, excepting newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals, or who shall place or cause to be deposited at any appointed place, for the purpose of being transported by such unlawful means, any matter or thing properly transmittable by mail, excepting newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals, tor who shall deliver any such matter, excepting newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals, for transmission to any agent or agents of such unlawful expresses, shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars.—Sec. 12, Act of 3 March, 1815.

SEC. 156. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall have the effect, or be construed to prohibit the conveyance or transportation of letters by steamboats, as authorized by the sixth section of the Act entitled "An Act to reduce into one the several acts for establishing and regulating the Post Office Department, approved the third of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five; Provided, That the requirements of said sixth section of said Act be strictly complied with, by the delivery, within the time specified by said Act, of all letters so conveyed, not relating to the cargo, or some part thereof, to the postmaster or other authorized agent of the Post Office Department at the port or place to which said letters may be directed, or intended to be delivered over from said boat; and the postmaster or other agent of the Post Office Department shall charge and collect upon all letters or other mailable matter, so delivered to him, except newspapers, pamphlets, magazines, and periodicals, the same rates of postage as would have been charged upon said letters had they been transmitted by mail from the port or place at which they were placed on board the steamboat from which they were received; but it is hereby expressly provided, that all the pains and penalties provided by this Act, for any violation of the provisions of the eleventh section of this Act, shall attach in every case to any stcamboat, or to the owners and persons having charge thereof, the captain or other person having charge of which shall not, as aforesaid, comply with the requirements of the sixth section of the said law of one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five. And no postmaster shall receive to be conveyed by the mail, any packet which shall weigh more than three pounds. - Sec. 13, Act of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 157. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary penalties and forfeitures, incurred under this Act, shall be one half for the use of the person or persons informing and prosecuting for the same, and the other half to the use of the United States, and shall be paid over to the Postmaster General, and accounted for by him as other moneys of the department; and all causes of action arising under this Act may be sued, and all offenders against this Act may be prosecuted, before the justices of the peace, magistrates, or other judicial courts of the several States and of the several Territories of the United States, they having competent jurisdiction, by the laws of such States or Territories, to the trial of claims and demands of as great value, and of the prosecutions, where the punishments are of as great extent; and such justices, magistrates, or judiciary, shall take cognizance thereof, and proceed to judgment and execution, as in other cases.—Sec. 17, Act of 3 March, 1845.

^{*} By the eighth Section of Act of August 31, 1852, letters enclosed in stamped envelopes may be sent out of the mail. See No. 145.

CHAPTER XIII.

RAILROAD SERVICE.

Sec. 158. And be it further enacted, That each and every railroad within the limits of the United States, which now is, or hereafter may be made and completed, shall be a post route*; and the Postmaster General shall cause the mail to be transported thereon, provided he can have it done upon reasonable terms, and not paying therefor, in any instance, more than twenty-five per centum over and above what similar transportation would cost in post coaches.— Sec. 2, Act of July 7, 1838.

Sec. 150. Be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall not by virtue of the authority vested in him by the second section of the "Act to establish certain post routes, and to discontinue others," approved July 7th, 1838, allow more than three hundred dollars per mile, per annum to any railroad company in the United States, for the conveyance of one or more daily mails upon their roads: Provided, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed so as in any way to remove or impair the limitations upon the power of the Postmaster General, imposed by that section.—Act of January 25, 1839.

Sec. 160. Re it resolved, That the Postmaster General be, and he hereby is, authorized to make and enter into contracts with any railroad company for the transmission of the mail, without advertising for bids on such railroads, as now required by law.-Joint resolution of February 20, 1845.

Sec. 161. And be it further enacted, That to insure, as far as may be practicable, an equal and just rate of compensation, according to the service performed, among the several railroad companies in the United States for the transportation of the mail, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to arrange and divide the railroad routes, including those in which the service is partly by railroad and partly by steamboats, into three classes according to the size of the mails, the speed with which they are conveyed, and the importance of the service; and it shall be lawful for him to contract for conveying the mail with any such railroad company, either with or without advertising for such contract: Provided, That, for the conveyance of the mail on any railroad of the first class, he shall not pay a higher rate of compensation than is now allowed by law; nor for carrying the mail on any railroad of the second class, a greater compensation than one hundred dollars per mile per annum; nor for carrying the mail on any railroad of the third class, a greater compensation than fifty dollars per mile per annum. And in case the Postmaster General shall not be able to conclude a contract for carrying the mail on any of such railroad routes, at a compensation not exceeding the aforesaid maximum rates, or for what he may deem a reasonable and fair compensation for the service to be performed, it shall be lawful for him to separate the letter mail from the residue of the mail, and to contract, either with or without advertising, for conveying the letter mail over such route, by horse express or otherwise, at the greatest speed that can reasonably be obtained, and also to contract for carrying over such route the residue of the mail, in waggons or otherwise, at a slower rate of speed: Provided, That if one half of the service, on any railroad, is required to be performed in the night season, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to pay twenty-five per cent. in addition to the aforesaid maximum rates of allowance. And provided further, That if it shall be found necessary to convey over any railroad route more than two mails daily, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to pay such additional compensation as he may think just and reasonable, having reference to the service performed and the maximum rate of allowance established by this Act. - Sec. 19, Act of 3 March, 1845.

CHAPTER XIV.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

SEC 162. And be it further enacted, That every letter or packet brought into the United States, or carried from one port therein to another, in any private ship or vessel, shall be charged with six cents, if delivered at the post office where the same shall arrive; and if destined to be conveyed, by post, to any place, with two cents added to the ordinary rates of postage.—Sec. 15, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 163. And be it further enacted, That the deputy postmasters, and other agents of the Postmaster General, shall duly account, and answer to him, for all way letters which shall come to their hands; and for this purpose, the post riders, and other carriers of the mail, receiving any way letter or letters, (and it shall be their duty to receive them if presented more than one mile from a post office,) shall deliver the same, together with the postage, if paid, at the first post office to which they shall afterwards verive; where the postmaster shall duly enter the same, and specify the number, and rate or rates, in the post bill, adding to the rate of each way letter one cent, which shall be paid by the postmaster to the mail carrier from whom such way letters shall be received.—Sec. 20, Act of March 8, 1825.

Sec. 164. Be it further enacted, That the better to enable the postal treaty with Great Britain to go into full effect with equal advantage to both countries, letters shall be mailed as composing one rate only where the letter does not exceed the weight of a half ounce avoirdupois; where it exceeds a half ounce but does not exceed an ounce, as composing two rates; where it exceeds an ounce but does not exceed two ounces, as composing four rates; where it exceeds two ounces but does not exceed three ounces, as composing six rates; where it exceeds three ounces but does not exceed four ounces, as composing eight rates; and in like progression for each additional ounce, or fraction of an ounce, and that each rate shall be subject to the full postage charge; and that letters refused, or which cannot be delivered, may be immediately returned to the dead letter office, and that newspapers not sent from the office of publication shall be charged with the same postage as other papers to be prepaid.—Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1840.

SEC. 165. Be it further enacted, That from and after the thirtieth day of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, in lieu of the rates of postage now established by law, there shall be charged the following rates, to wit: For every single letter in manuscript, or paper of any kind upon which information shall be asked for, or communicated in writing, or by marks or signs, conveyed in the mail, * * * wholly or in part by sea, and to or from a foreign country, for any distance over twenty-five hundred miles, twenty cents, and for any distance under twentyfive hundred miles, ten cents, (excepting, however, all cases where such postage has been or shall be adjusted at different rates by postal treaty or convention, already concluded or hereafter to be made;) and for a double letter there shall be charged double the rates above specified; and for a treble letter, treble those rates; and for a quadruple letter, quadruple those rates; and every letter or parcel not exceeding half an ounce in weight, shall be deemed a single letter; and every additional weight of half an ounce, or additional weight of less than half an ounce, shall be charged with an additional single postage. And all drop-letters, or letters placed in any post office, not for transmission, but for delivery only, shall be charged with postage at the rate of one cent each; and all letters which shall hereafter be advertised as remaining over or uncalled for, in any post office, shall be charged with one cent in addition to the regular postage, both to be accounted for as other postages now are.*—Sec. 1, Act of 3 March, 1851.

SEC. 166. Be it further enacted, That in lieu of the rates of postage now established by law, there shall be charged the following rates, to wit:

For every single letter in manuscript, or paper of any kind in which information shall be asked for or communicated in writing, or by marks or signs, conveyed in the mail for any distance between places in the United States not exceeding three thousand miles, three cents; and for any distance exceeding three thousand miles, ten cents.

And for a double letter there shall be charged double the rate above specified; and for a treble letter, treble those rates; and for a quadruple letter, quadruple those rates; and every letter or parcel not exceeding half an ounce in weight shall be deemed a single letter; and every additional weight of half an ounce, or additional weight of less than half an ounce, shall be charged with an additional single postage; and upon all letters passing through or in the mail of the United States, excepting such as are to or from a foreign country, the postages as above specified shall be prepaid, except upon letters and packages addressed to officers of the government on official business, which shall be so marked on the envelope. And from and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, the Postmaster General may require postmasters to place postage stamps upon all prepaid letters upon which such stamps may not have been placed by the writers.

And all drop letters,† or letters placed in any post office not for transmission through the mail, but for delivery only, shall be charged with postage at the rate of one cent each; and all letters which shall hereafter be advertised as remaining over, or uncalled for, in any post office, shall be charged with one cent each, in addition to the regular postage; both to be accounted for as other postages now are.—Sec. 1, Act of 3 March, 1855.

SEC. 167. Be it further enacted, That from and after the thirtieth day of September, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, the postage upon all printed matter passing through the mail of the United States, instead of the rates now charged shall be as follows, to wit: Each newspaper, periodical, unsealed circular, or other article of printed matter, not exceeding three ounces in weight, shall be sent to any part of the United States for one cent, and for every additional ounce, or fraction of an ounce, one cent additional shall be charged; and when the postage upon any newspaper or periodical is paid quarterly or yearly in advance at the office where the said periodical or newspaper is delivered, or is paid yearly or quarterly in advance at the office where the same is mailed, and evidence of such payment is furnished to the office of delivery in such manner as the Post Office Department shall, by general regulations, prescribe, one half of said rates only shall be charged. Newspapers and periodicals not weighing over one ounce and a half, when circulated in the State where published, shall be charged one half of the rates before mentioned: Provided, That small newspapers and periodicals, published monthly or oftener, and pamphlets not containing more than sixteen octavo pages each, when sent in single packages, weighing at least eight ounces, to one address, and prepaid by affixing postage stamps thereto, shall be charged only half of a cent for each ounce or fraction of an ounce, notwithstanding the postage calculated on each separate article of such package would exceed that amount. The postage on all transient matter shall be prepaid by stamps or otherwise, or shall be charged double the rates first above mentioned .- Sec. 1, Act of 30 August, 1852.

Sec. 168. And be it further enacted, That books, bound or unbound, not weighing over four pounds, shall be deemed mailable matter, and shall be chargeable with postage at one cent an ounce for all distances under three thousand miles, and two cents an ounce for all distances over three thousand miles, to which fifty per cent. shall be added in all cases where the same may be sent without being prepaid, and all printed matter chargeable by weight shall be weighed when dry. The publishers of newspapers and periodicals may send to each other from their respective offices of publication, free of postage, one copy of each publication; and may also send to each actual subscriber, enclosed in their publishers of weekly newspapers may send to each actual subscriber within the county where their papers are printed and published one c-py thereof free of postage.—Sec. 2, Act of 30 August, 1852.

SEC. 169. And be it further enacted, That no newspaper, periodical, magazine, or other printed paper or matter, shall be entitled to be sent at the rates of postage in this Act specified, unless the following conditions be observed:

First. It shall be sent without any cover or wrapper, or in a cover or wrapper open at the ends or sides, so that the character of the matter contained therein may be determined without removing such wrapper. Second. There shall be no word or communication printed on the same after its publication, or upon the cover or wrapper thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it, nor upon the cover or wrapper thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom it is to be sent. Third. There shall be no paper or other thing enclosed in or with such printed paper: and if these conditions are not complied with, such printed matter shall be subject to letter postage; and all matter sent by mail from one part of the United States to another, the postage of which is not fixed by the provisions of this Act, shall, unless the same be entitled to be sent free of postage, be charged with letter postage.—Sec. 3, Act of August 30, 1852.

Sec. 170. And be it further enacted, That in case the Postmaster General shall deem it expedient to establish an express mail, in addition to the ordinary mail, on any of the post roads in the United States, for the purpose of conveying slips from newspapers in lieu of exchange newspapers, or letters, other than such as contain money, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, marked "express mail," and public despatches, he shall be authorized to charge all letters and packets carried by such express mail with triple the rates of postage to which letters and packets, not free, may be by law subject, when carried by the ordinary mails.*—Sec. 39, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 171. And be it further enacted, That if any postmaster, or other person authorized by the Postmaster General to receive the postage of letters, shall fraudulently demand or receive any rate of postage, or gratuity, or reward, other than is provided by this Act, for the postage of letters or packets, on conviction thereof he shall forfeit, for every such offence, one hundred dollars.—Sec. 16, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 172. Be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General, under the direction of the President of the United States, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to charge upon, and collect from, all letters and other mailable matter carried to or from any port of the United States, in any foreign packet ship or other vessel, the same rate or rates of charge for American postage, which the government to which such foreign packet or other vessels belongs imposes upon letters or other mailable matter conveyed to or from such foreign country in American packets or other vessels, as the postage of such government, and at any time to revoke the same. And it shall be the duty of all custom-house officers and other United States agents designated or appointed for that purpose to enforce or carry into effect the foregoing provision, and to aid or assist in the collection of such postage. And to that end, it shall be lawful for such officers and agents, on suspicion of fraud, to open and examine, in the presence of two or more respectable persons, being citizens of the United States, any package or packages supposed to contain mailable matter found on board such packets or other vessels, or elsewhere, and to prevent, if necessary, such packets or other vessels from entering, breaking bulk, or making clearance, until such letters or other mailable matter are duly delivered into the United States Post Office.‡—Sec. 1, Act of June 27, 1848.

SEC. 173. And be it further enacted, That all letters or other mailable matter conveyed to or from any port of the United States, by any foreign packet or ship, except such unsealed letters relating to said ship or vessel, or any part of the cargo thereof as may be directed to the owner or owners, consignee or consignees of said ship or other vessel, shall be so subject to postage charge as aforesaid, whether addressed to any person in the United States or elsewhere: provided it is done by the packet or other ship of a foreign country imposing postage on letters or mailable matter conveyed to or from such country by any packet or other ship of the United States, and such letters or other mailable matter carried in foreign packet ships or other vessels, except such unsealed letters relating to the ship or vessel or any part of the cargo thereof, as may be directed to the owner or owners, consignee or consignees, as aforesaid, are hereby required to be delivered into the United States post office by the master or commanders of all such packets or other vessels when arriving, and to be taken from a United States post office, when departing, and the postage paid thereon justly chargeable by this Act, and for refusing or failing to do so, or for conveying said letters or any letters intended to be conveyed in any ship or vessel of such foreign country over or across the United States, or any portion thereof, the party offending shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay not exceeding five thousand dollars for each offence. $\ince{S} = Sec. 2. Act of 27 June, 1848.

SEC. 174. And be it further enacted, That so much of the second section of the Act entitled "An act to modify and reduce the rates of postage in the United States, and for other purposes," approved March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, as relates to the postage or free circulation or transmission of newspapers, periodicals, and other printed matter, and all other provisions of law inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.—Sec. 5, Act of 80 August, 1852.

CHAPTER XV.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS.

SEC. 175. And be it further enacted, That for the greater security of valuable letters posted for transmission in the mails of the United States, the Postmaster General be, and hereby is, authorized to establish a uniform plan for the registration of such letters, on application of parties posting the same, and to require the prepayment of the postage, as well as a registration fee of five cents on every such letter or packet, to be accounted for by postmasters receiving the same in such manner as the Postmaster General shall direct; Provided, hovever, That such registration shall not be compulsory; and it shall not render the Post Office Department or its revenue liable for the loss of such letters or packets, or the contents thereof.—Sec. 8, Act of 8 March, 1855.

CHAPTER XVI.

SHIP AND STEAMBOAT MAILS.

SEC. 176. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be authorized to have the mail carried in any steamboat, or other vessel, which shall be used as a packet, in any of the waters of the United States, on such terms and conditions as shall be considered expedient: Provided, That he does not pay more than three cents for each letter, and more than one-half cent for each newspaper conveyed in such mail.*—Sec. 5, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 177. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every master or manager of any steamboat, which shall pass from one port or place to another port or place in the United States, where a post office is established, to deliver,† within three hours after his arrival, if in the daytime, and within two hours after the next sunrise, if the arrival be in the night, all letters and packets addressed to, or destined for, such port or place, to the postmaster there, for which he shall be entitled to receive, of such postmaster, two‡ cents for every letter or packet so delivered, unless the same shall be carried or conveyed under a contract with the Postmaster General; and if any master or manager of a steamboat shall fail so to deliver any letter or packet, which shall have been brought by him, or shall have been in his care, or within his power, he shall incur a penalty of thirty dollars for every such failure. And every person, employed on board any steamboat, shall deliver every letter, and packet of letters, entrusted to such person, to the master or manager of such steamboat, and before the said vessel shall touch at any other port or place; and for every failure or neglect so to deliver, a penalty of ten dollars shall be incurred for each letter or packet.—Sec. 6, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 178. And be it further enacted, That no ship or vessel, arriving at any port within the United States where a post office is established, shall be permitted to report, make entry, or break bulk, until the master or commander shall have delivered to the postmaster all letters directed to any person or persons within the United States or the Territories thereof, which, under his care, or within his power, shall be brought in such ship or vessel, except such as are directed to the owner or consignee of the ship or vessel. And it shall be the duty of the collector, or other officer of the port empowered to receive entries of ships or vessels, to require, from every master or commander of such ship or vessel, an oath or affirmation, purporting that he has delivered all such letters, except as aforesaid; and if any commander or master of any such ship or vessel shall break bulk before he shall have complied with the requirements of this Act, every such offender shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.—Sec. 17, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 179. And be it further enacted, That the postmaster to whom such letters may be delivered shall pay the master or commander, or other person delivering the same, except the commanders of foreign packets, two cents for each letter or packet; and shall obtain from the person delivering the same, a certificate, specifying the number of letters and packets, with the name of the ship or vessel, and the place from whence she last sailed; which certificate, together with a receipt for the money, shall be, with his quarterly accounts, transmitted to the Postmaster General, who shall credit him with the amount. §—Sec. 18, Act of 3 March, 1825.

who shall credit him with the amount. S—Sec. 18, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 180. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall have power, and he is hereby authorized, to contract with the owners or commanders of any steamboat plying upon the Western or other waters of the United States, for the transportation of the mail for any length of time or number of trips, less than the time for which contracts for transporting the mail of the United States are now usually made under existing laws, and without the previous advertisements now required before entering into such contracts, whenever in his opinion the public interest and convenience will be promoted thereby: Provided, That the price to be paid for such service shall in no case be greater than the average rate paid for such service under the last preceding or then existing regular contract for transporting the mail upon the route he may so for a less time contract for the transportation of the mail upon. —Sec. 14, Act of 3 March. 1845.

Sec. 181. Be it further enacted, That * * * the Postmaster General shall have authority to pay or cause to be paid a sum not exceeding two cents each for all letters or packets conveyed in any vessel or steamboat not employed in carrying the mail, from one post or place to any other post or place in the United States, subject to such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

* * * * —Sec. 18, Act of 3 March, 1847.

Sec. 182. And be it further enacted, That no collector or other officer of the customs shall permit any ship or vessel arriving within any port or collection district of the United States to make entry or break bulk until all letters on board the same shall be delivered into the post office at or nearest said port or place, nor until the captain or commander of such ship or vessel shall have signed and sworn to a declaration before such collector or officer of the customs, in the form and to the effect following, that is to say: "I, A. B., commander of the [state the name of the ship or vessel,] arriving from [state the place,] and now lying in the port of [state the name of the port,] do, as required by law, solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I have, to the best of my knowledge or belief, delivered, or caused to be delivered into the post office at or nearest said port, every letter and every bag, parcel or package of letters that were on board the [state the name of the ship or vessel] during her last voyage, and that I have so delivered or caused to be delivered all such letters, bags, parcels, and packages as were in my possession or under my power or control." And the collector, and every officer of the customs at every port, without special instructions, and every special agont of the

SUITS.

SEC. 184. And be it further enacted, That the Auditor of the Post Office Department shall superintend the collection of all debts due to the Department, and all penalties and forfoitures imposed on postmasters for failing to make returns, or pay over the proceeds of their offices; he shall direct suits and legal proceedings, and take all such measures as may be authorized by law to enforce the prompt payment of moneys due-to the Department.—Sec. 14, Act of 2 July, 1836.

SEC. 185. And be it further enacted, That if any postmaster, or other person authorized to receive the postage of letters and packets, shall neglect or refuse to render his accounts, and pay over to the Postmaster General the balance by him due, at the end of every three months, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to cause a suit to be commenced against the person or persons so neglecting or refusing.

Sec. 186. And be it further enacted, That if any postmaster shall neglect to render his accounts for one mouth after the time, and in the form and manner prescribed by law, and by the Postmaster General's instructions, conformable therewith, he shall forfeit double the value of the postages which shall have arisen at the same office in any equal portion of time previous or subsequent thereto; or, in case no account shall have been rendered at the time of trial of such ease, then such sum as the court and jury shall estimate, equivalent thereto, to be recovered by the Postmaster General, in an action of debt, on the bond against the postmaster and his securities, and for which the securities shall be liable.—Sec. 32, Act of 3 March, 1825.

SEC. 187. And be it further enacted, That, in all suits or causes arising under this Act, the court shall proceed to trial, and render judgment the first term after such suit shall be commenced: Provided, always, That, whenever service of the process shall not have been made twenty days, at least, previous to the return day of such term, the defendant shall be entitled to one continuance, if the court, on the statement of such defendant, shall judge it expedient: Provided, also, That if the defendant in such suits shall make affidavit that he has a claim against the General Post Office, not allowed by the Postmaster General, although submitted to him conformably to the regulations of the Post Office, and shall specify such claim in the affidavit, and that he could not be prepared for the trial at such term, for want of evidence, the court, in such case, being satisfied in those respects, may grant a continuance until the next succeeding term; and the Postmaster General shall be authorized to discharge from imprisonment any person confined in jail, on any judgment in a civil case, obtained in behalf of the Department: Provided, It be made to appear that the defendant has no property of any description: And provided, That such release shall not bar a subsequent execution against the property of the defendant.—'Sec. 88, Act of 3 March, 1825.

Sec. 1-8. And be it further enacted, That the bonds and contracts of postmasters, mail contractors, and other agents of the Post Office Department, shall hereafter be made to and with the United States of America; and all suits to be commenced for the recovery of debts or balances due by postmasters and others, or upon bonds or contracts made to or with the present or any former Postmaster General, or for any fines, penalties, or forfeitures, imposed by the laws respecting the Post Office Department, or by the Postmaster General, pursuant thereto, shall be instituted in the name of the United States of America; and the demands in such suits shall have all the privileges and priorities in adjudication and payment secured to other claims of the United States by the existing laws; Provided, That actions and suits which may have been instituted in the name of the Postmaster General, previous to the passage of this Act, shall not be affected by the provisions of this section.—Sec. 13, Act of 2 July, 1836.

SEC. 189. And be it further enacted, That copies of the quarterly returns of postmasters, and of any papers pertaining to the accounts in the office of the Auditor of the Post Office Department, certified by him, under his seal of office, shall be admitted as evidence in the courts of the United States; and in every case of delinquency of any postmaster or contractor, in which suit may be brought, the said Auditor shall forward to the Attorney of the United States certified copies of all papers in his office tending to sustain the claim; and in every such case a statement of the account, certified as aforesaid, shall be admitted as evidence, and the court trying the cause shall be therenpon authorized to give judgment and award execution, subject to the provisions of the thirty-eighth section of the Act to reduce into one the several acts establishing and regulating the Post Office Department, approved March third, eighteen hundred and twenty-five. No claim for a credit shall be allowed upon the trial but such as shall have been presented to the said Auditor, and by him disallowed in whole or in part, unless it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is at the time of the trial in possession of vouchers not before in his power to procure, and that he was prevented from exhibiting to the said Auditor a claim for such credit by some unavoidable accident. In suits for balances due from postmasters, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be recovered, from the time of the default until payment.—Sec. 15, Act of 2 July, 1836.

SEC. 190. And be it further enacted, That the Attorneys of the United States, in the prosecution of suits for moneys due on account of the Post Office Department, shall obey the directions which may, from time to time, be given to them by the Auditor of the Post Office Department; and it shall be the duty of each of the said attorneys, immediately after the end of every term of any court in which any of the suits aforesaid shall have been pending, to forward to the said Auditor a statement of all the judgments, orders, and steps which have been made or taken in the same during the said term, accompanied by a certificate of the clerk showing the parties to, and amount of, each judgment, with such other information as may be required by the said Auditor. The said attorneys shall direct speedy and effectual process of execution upon the said judgments; and it shall be the duty of the marshals of the United States, to whom the same shall be directed, to make to the said Auditor, at such times as he may direct, returns of the proceedings which have taken place upon the said process of execution .- Sec. 16, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 191. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any sum or sums of money have been paid out of the funds of the Post Office Department to any individual or individuals, under pretence that service has been performed therefor, when in fact such service has not been performed, or by way of additional allowance for increased service actually rendered, when the additional allowance exceeds the sum which, by the provisions of law, might rightfully have been allowed therefor, and in all other cases where the moneys of the Department have been paid over to any person in consequence of fraudulent representations, or by the mistake, collusion, or misconduct of any officer or clerk of the Department, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to cause suit to be brought, in the name of the United States of America, to recover back the same, or the excess, as the case may be, with interest theron.—Sec. 17, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 192. And be it further ena ted, That the Auditor of the Post Office Department shall adjust and settle all balances due from postmasters on account of transactions prior to the first day of July, eighteen hundred and thirty-six. He shall, when necessary, institute suits for the same, and cause them to be effectually prosected to judgment and execution; and in cases in which proceedings at law for these or any other balances that are or may become due on account of the Post Office Department, have been or shall be fruitless, may direct the institution of suits in chancery, to set aside fraudulent conveyances or trusts, or attach debts due to the defendants, or obtain any other proper exercise of the powers of equity, to have satisfaction of the said judgments; and the courts of the United States, sitting in chancery, shall have jurisdiction to entertain such bills, and make such decrees and orders thereupon as may be consonant to the principles and usages of equity. The said Auditor shall report to the Postmrster General, to be by him submitted to Congress, at its next annual session, a statement of all the balances and debts due to the Post Office Department as aforesaid, by late postmasters, showing, in each case, the name and office of the principal debtor, tho names of the sureties, if any, the amount of the debt, the time at which it accrued, the steps taken to collect the same, and whether they have been successful or not. The said statement shall also classify such of the said balances as may then remain due, into such as are considered collectible, and such as are not, with the whole amount of each class.—

Sec. 18, Act of July 2, 1836.

Sec. 193. And be it further enacted, That the Auditor of the Post Office Department, or any mayor of a city, justico of the peace, or judge of any court of record in the United States, by him especially designated, shall be authorized to administer oaths and affirmations, in relation to the examination and settlement of the accounts committed to his charge; and if any person shall knowingly swear or affirm falsely, touching the expenditures of the Post Office Department, or in relation to any account of, or claim against, or in favor of, the said Department, he or she shall, upon conviction thereof, suffer as for wilful and corrupt perjury.—Sec 19, Act of July 2, 1836.

SEC. 194. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of fine, penalty, forfeiture, or disability, or alleged liability for any sum or sums of money, by way of damages or otherwise, under any provision of law relating to the Post Office Department, or the officers, operations, or business thereof, the Postmaster General shall be, and he is hereby, anthorized to prescribe such general rules and mode of proceeding as shall to him appear expedient, for the government of the Auditor of the Post Office Department, in ascertaining the facts in each case in which it shall be certified to him by such Auditor that the interests of the Department probably require the exercise of the power conferred by this Act; and upon the facts being ascertained as aforesaid, the said Auditor shall have power, with the written consent of the Postmaster General, to mitigate or remit such fine, penalty, or forfeithre, remove such disability, and to compromise, release, and discharge such claims for such sum or sums of money and damages, on such terms as the said Auditor shall deem just and expedient; and that in all cases where a judgment shall have been obtained for a debt or damages due the Post Office Department, and it shall satisfactorily appear, by the return of execution or otherwise, that such judgment, or so much thereof as remains unpaid, can not be collected by due process of law, the said Auditor shall be, and he is hereby authorized, with the written consent of the Postmaster General, to compromise such judgment, and accept, in satisfaction thereof, less than the amount of such judgment: I'rovided, That the power conferred by this section shall not extend to any case of fine, penalty, forfeiture, disability, alleged liability or claim which shall be incurred, accrue, or arise, subsequent to the passage of this Act; or to any judgment obtained after the passage thereof. - Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1851.

CHAPTER XVIII.

ACTS BEARING ON THE POST OFFICE IN COMMON WITH THE OTHER EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS.

SEC. 195. And be it further enacted, That on the said first Monday in December, in the year one thousand eight hundred, the seat of the Government of the United States shall, by virtue of this Act, be transferred to the District and place aforesaid (District of Columbia, Washington City.) And all offices attached to the said seat of Government, shall accordingly be removed thereto by their respective holders, and shall, after the said day, cease to be exercised elsewhere; and that the necessary expense of such removal shall be defrayed out of the duties on imports and tonnage—of which a sufficient sum is hereby appropriated.—Act of July 16, 1790.

Sec. 196. And be it further enacted, That where any revenue officer, or other person, hereafter becoming indebted to the United States, by bond or otherwise, shall become insolvent, or where the estate of any deceased debtor, in the hands of executors or administrators, shall be insufficient to pay all the debts due from the deceased, the debt due to the United States shall be first satisfied; and the priority* hereby established shall be deemed to extend, as well as to cases in which a debtor, not having sufficient property to pay all of his debts, shall make a voluntary assignment thereof, or in which the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed, or absent debtor, shall be attached by process of law, as to cases in which an act of legal bankruptcy shall be committed.—Sec. 5, Act of March 3, 1797.

Sec. 197. Le it further enacted, That from and after the passage of this Act, no member of Congress shall, directly or indirectly, himself, or by any other person whatsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account. undertake, execute, hold or enjoy, in the whole or in part, any contract or agreement, hereafter to be made or entered into with any officer of the United States, in their behalf, or with any person authorized to make contracts on the part of the United States; and if any member of Congress shall, directly or indirectly, himself, or by any other person whatsoever in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account, enter into, accept of, agree for, undertake or execute, any such contract or agreement, in the whole or in part, every member so offending shall, for every such offence, upon conviction thereof, before any court of the United States, or of the Territories thereof, having cognizance of such offence, be adjudged guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be fined three thousand dollars; and every such contract or agreement as aforesaid shall, moreover, be absolutely void and of no effect: Provided, nevertheless, That in all cases where any sum or sums of money shall have been advanced on the part of the United States, in consideration of any such contract or agreement, the same shall be forthwith repaid; and in case of refusal or delay to repay the same, when demanded, by the proper officer of the Department, under whose authority such contract or agreement shall have been made or entered into, every person so refusing or delaying, together with his surety or sureties, shall be forthwith prosecuted at law for the recovery of any such sum or sums of money advanced as aforesaid .- Sec. 1, A. t of 21 April, 1808.

SEC. 198. And be it further ena ted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any contract or agreement, made, or entered into, or accepted by any incorporated company, where such contract or agreement shall be made for the general benefit of such incorporation or company; nor to the purchase or sale of bills of exchange, or other property, by any member of Congress, where the same shall be ready for delivery, and for which payment shall be made at the time of making or entering into the contract or agreement.—Sec. 2, Act of 21 April, 1808.

SEC. 199. And be it further enacted, That in every such contract or agreement, to be made, or entered into, or accepted, as aforesaid, there shall be inserted an express condition, that no member of Congress shall be admitted to any share or part of such contract or agreement, or to any benefit to arise thereupon.—Sec. 3, Act of 21 April, 1808.

Sec. 200. And be it further enacted, that if any officer of the United States, on behalf of the United States, shall directly or indirectly, make or enter into any contract, bargain, or agreement, in writing or otherwise, other than such as are herein excepted, with any member of Congress, such officer so offending, on conviction thereof, before any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and be fined in a sum of three thousand dollars.—Sec. 4, Act of 21 April, 1808.

SEC. 201. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, and the Postmaster General, annually, to lay before Congress a statement of all the contracts which have been made in their respective departments, during the year preceding such report, exhibiting in such statement the name of the contractor, the article or thing contracted for, the place where the article was to be delivered or the thing performed, the sum to be paid for its performance or delivery, the date and duration of the contract.—Sec. 5, A t of 21 April, 1808.

SEC. 202. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person or persons to whom letters testamentary, or of administration, have been or may hereafter be granted by the proper authority in any of the United States or the Territories thereof, to maintain any suit or action, and to prosecute and recover any claim in the District of Columbia, in the same manner, as if the letters testamentary or of administration had been granted to such person or persons by the proper authority in the said District; and the letters testamentary or of administration, or a copy thereof, certified under the seal of the authority granting the same, shall be sufficient evidence to prove the granting thereof, and that the person or persons, as the case may be, hath or have administration.—Sec. 11, Act of June 24, 1812.

Sec. 203. Le it further enacted, That no money hereafter appropriated shall be paid to any person, for his compensation, who is in arrears to the United States, until such person shall have accounted for, and paid into the Treasury, all sums for which he may be liable: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to balances arising solely from the depreciation of Treasury notes received by such person, to be expended in the public service; but in all cases where the pay or salary of any person is withheld, in pursuance of this Act, it shall be the duty of the accounting officers, if demanded by the party, his agent or attorney, to report forthwith to the agent of the Treasury Department the balance due, and it shall be the duty of the said agent, within sixty days thereafter, to order suit to be commenced against such delinquent and his sureties.—Sec. 1, Act of January 25, 1828.

Sec. 204. And be it further enacted, That no officer in any branch of the public service, or any other person whose salaries, or whose pay or emoluments is or are fixed by law and regulations, shall receive any extra allowance or compensation, in any form whatever, for the disbursement of public money, or the performance of any other services, unless the said extra allowance or compensation be authorized by law.—Sec. 3, Act of 3 March, 1839.

SEC. 205. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duties of the Secretaries of State, of the Treasury, War, and Navy, of the Commissioners of the Navy, of the Postmaster General, of the Secretary of the Senate, and of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, to report to Congress, at the beginning of each year, the names of the clerks and other persons that have been employed, respectively, during the preceding year, or any part thereof, in their respective departments and offices, together with the time that each clerk or other person was actually employed, and the sums paid to each: and also whether they have been usefully employed; whether the services of any of them can be dispensed with without detriment to the public service; and whether the removal of any individuals, and the appointment of others in their stead, is required for the better despatch of business; and no greater allowance shall be made to any such clerk, or other person, than is or may be authorized by law, except to watchmen and messengers, for any labor or services required of them beyond the particular duties of their respective stations, rendered at such times as does not interfere with the performance of their regular duties.—Sec. 11, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 206. And be it further enacted, That no allowance or compensation shall be made to any clerk, or other officer, by reason of the discharge of duties which belong to any other clerk or officer in the same or any other department; and no allowance or compensation shall be made for any extra services whatever which any clerk or other officer may be required to perform.—Sec. 12, Act of 26 August, 1842.

Sec. 207. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each chief or principal clerk in the respective departments, bureaus, and other offices, to supervise, under the direction of his immediately superior officer, the duties of the other clerks therein, and to see that their duties are faithfully executed, and that such duties are distributed with equality and uniformity, according to the nature of the case. And such distribution shall be revised from time to time, by the said chief or principal clerk, for the purpose of correcting any tendency to undue accumulation or reduction of duties, whether arising from individual negligence or incapacity, or from increase or diminution of particular kinds of business; and such chief or principal clerk shall report monthly to his superior officer any existing defect that he may be aware of in the arrangement or despatch of business; and such defect shall be amended by new arrangements of duties, dismissal of negligent or incompetent officers, or otherwise.—Sec. 13, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 203. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several heads of departments, in communicating estimates of expenditures and appropriations to Congress, and to any of the committees thereof, to specify as nearly as may be convenient, the sources from which such estimates are derived, and the calculations upon which they are founded; and, in so doing, to discriminate between such estimates as are conjectural in their character, and such as are framed upon actual information and application from disbursing officers; and in communicating the several estimates, reference shall be given to the laws and treaties by which they are authorized, the dates thereof, and the volume, page, and section in which the necessary provisions are contained.—Sec. 14, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 209. And be it further ena ted, That no extra clerk shall be employed in any department, bureau, or office, at the seat of Government, except during the session of Congress, or when indispensably necessary to enable such department, bureau, or office to answer some call made by either House of Congress at one session, to be answered at another, and not then, except by order of the head of the department in which, or in some bureau or office of which such extra clerk shall be employed; and no such extra clerk, for copying shall receive more than three dollars per day, or for any other service more than four dollars per day, for the time actually and necessarily employed.—Sec. 15, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 210. And be it further enacted, That no messenger, assistant messenger, laborer, or other person, shall be employed in any department, bureau, or office, at the seat of Government, or paid out of the contingent fund appropriated to such department, bureau, or office, unless such employment shall be authorized by law, or shall become necessary to carry into effect some object for which appropriations may be specifically made; and not exceeding one hundred dollars per annum shall be applied by each department (except the Department of State) for the purchase of newspapers for such department, and all the bureaus and offices connected therewith; and such papers shall be preserved as files for said department.-Sec. 16, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 211. And be it further enacted, That all stationery, of every name and nature, for the use of the two Houses of Congress, and all stationery and job printing, of every name and nature, for the use of the several departments of the Government, and for the bureaus and offices in those departments at Washington, including all stationery, blanks, wrapping paper, and twine, and mail bags, furnished the post offices and collectors' offices throughout the United States, shall hereafter be furnished and performed by contract, by the lowest bidder, as follows: the Secretary of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives, the head of each department, and such deputy postmasters in the Post Office establishment, and such collectors in the custom-house establishment, as the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury shall respectively designate for that purpose, shall respectively advertise, once a week, for at least four weeks, in one or more of the principal papers published in the places where such articles are to be furnished, or such printing done, for scaled proposals for furnishing such articles, or the whole of any particular class of articles, or for doing such printing, or the whole of any specified job thereof, to be done at such place, specifying in such advertisement the amount, quantity, and description of each kind of articles to be furnished, and, as near as may be, the nature, amount, and kind of printing to be done; and all such proposals shall be kept scaled until the day specified in such advertisement for opening the same, when they shall be opened, by or under the direction of the officer making such advertisement, in the presence of at least two persons; and the person offering to furnish any class of such articles, or to perform any specified portion or job of said work, and giving satisfactory security for the performance thereof, under a forfeiture not exceeding twice the contract price in case of failure, shall receive a contract for doing the same; and in case the lowest bidder shall fail to enter into such contract, and give such security within a reasonable time, to be fixed in such advertisement, then the contract shall be given to the next lowest bidder who shall enter into such contract and give such security. And in case of a failure to supply the articles or to perform the work, by the person entering into such contract, he and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture specified in such contract, as liquidated damages, to be sued for in the name of the United States, in any court having jurisdiction thereof.—Sec. 17, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 212. And be it further enacted, That all such bids or proposals shall be returned by the person authorized, as aforesaid, to receive the same, to the Executive Department from which such authority is derived, and shall be preserved in said Department, subject to such examination as Congress may at any time order and direct.—Sec. 18, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 213. And be it further enacted, That no part of the contingent fund appropriated to any department, bureau, or office, shall be applied to the purchase of books, periodicals, pictures, or engravings, or other thing, except such books, periodicals, and maps, or other thing, as the head of such department shall deem necessary and proper to carry on the business of such department, and shall, by written order, direct to be procured for that purpose.—Sec.

19, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 214. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Senate, at the commencement of every regular session of Congress, to report to the Senate, and of the Clerk of the House of Representatives to report to the House, and of the head of each department to report to Congress, a detailed statement of the manner in which the contingent fund for each House, and of their respective departments, and for the bureaus and offices therein, has been expended, giving the names of every person to whom any portion thereof has been paid; and if for any thing furnished, the quantity and price; and if for any services rendered, the nature of such service, and the time employed, and the particular occasion or cause, in brief, that rendered such service necessary; and the amount of all former appropriations in such case on hand, either in the Treasury or in the hands of any disbursing officer or agent. And they shall require of the disbursing officers, acting under their direction or authority, the return of precise and analytical statements and receipts for all the moneys which may have been, from time to time, during the next preceding year, expended by them; and the results of such returns, and the sums total shall be communicated annually to Congress, by the said officers, respectively.—Ser. 20, Act of 26 August, 1842.

SEC. 215. And be it further ena ted, That in all cases where proposals for any contract or contracts to be made by any of the executive departments or bureaus, and in all cases where notices of any description issuing from the same, are now required by law to be advertised, the same shall be advertised by publication, in the two newspapers in the city of Washington having the largest permanent subscription, and at the discretion of the Executive, in any third paper that may be published in said city: Provided, That the charges for such publications shall not be higher than such as are paid by individuals for advertising in said papers; and, Provided, also, that the same publication shall be made in each of said papers, equally, as to frequency. -Sec. 12, A. t of 3 March, 1845.

SEC. 216. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the United States, the Treasurer of the Mint of the United States, the treasurers, and those acting as such, of the various branch mints, all collectors of the customs, all surveyors of the customs acting also as collectors, all assistant treasurers, all receivers of public moneys at the several land offices, all postmasters, and all public officers, of whatsoever character, be, and they are hereby required to keep safely, without loaning, using, depositing in banks, or exchanging for other funds than as allowed by this Act, all the public money collected by them, or otherwise at any time placed in their possession and custody, till the same is ordered, by the proper department or officer of the Government, to be transferred or paid out; and when such orders for transfer or payment are received, faithfully and promptly to make the same as directed, and to do and perform all other duties as fiscal agents of the Government which may be imposed by this or any other acts of Congress, or by any regulation of the Treasury Department made in conformity to law; and also to do and perform all acts and duties required by law, or by direction of any of the Executive Departments of the Government, as agents for paying pensions, or for making any other disbursements which either of the heads of those Departments may be required by law to make, and which are of a character to be made by the depositaries hereby constituted, consistently with the other official duties imposed upon them.—See, 6, Act of 6 August, 1846.

SEC. 217. And be it further ena ted, That all collectors and receivers of public money, of every character and description, within the District of Columbia, shall, as frequently as they may be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Postmaster General, so to do, pay over to the Treasurer of the United States at the Treasury, all public moneys collected by them, or in their hands; that all such collectors and receivers of public moneys within the cities of Philadelphia and New Orleans shall, upon the same direction, pay over to the treasurers of the mints in their respective cities, at the said mints, all public moneys collected by them, or in their hands; and that all such collectors and receivers of public moneys within the cities of New York, Boston, Charleston, and St. Louis, shall, upon the same direction, pay over to the assistant treasurers, in their respective cities, at their offices, respectively, all the public moneys collected by them, or in their hands, to be safely kept by the said respective depositaries until otherwise disposed of according to law; and it shall be the duty of the said Secretary and Postmaster General respectively to direct such payments by the said collectors and receivers at all the said places at least as often as once in each week, and as much more frequently, in all cases, as they in their discretion may think proper.—Ne. 9.

Act of Aug. 6, 1846.

SEC. 218. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Treasury to transfer the moneys in the hands of any depositary hereby constituted to the Treasury of the United States, to be there safely kept, to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, according to the provisions of this Act; and also to transfer moneys in the hands of any one depositary constituted by this act to any other depositary constituted by the same, at his discretion, and as the safety of the public moneys, and the convenience of the public service shall seem to him to require; which authority to transfer the moneys belonging to the Post Office Department is also hereby conferred upon the Postmaster General, so far as its exercise by him may be consistent with the provisions of existing laws; and every depositary constituted by this Act shall keep his account of the money paid to or deposited with him belonging to the Post Office Department, separate and distinct from the account kept by him of other public moneys, so paid or deposited. And for the purpose of payments on the public account, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the United States to draw upon any of the said depositaries, as he may think most conducive to the public interest or to the convenience of the public creditors, or both. And each depositary so drawn upon shall make returns to the Treasury and Post Office Departments of all moneys received and paid by him, at such times and in such form as shall be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Postmaster General.—Sec. 10, Act of 6 Angust, 1846.

SEC. 219. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, at his discretion, transfer the balances remaining with any of the present depositaries to any other of the present depositaries, as he may deem the safety of the public money or the public convenience may require: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to transfer the balances remaining with any of the present depositaries to the depositaries constituted by this Act before the first day of January next: And provided, That for the purpose of payments on public account, out of balances remaining with the present depositaries, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the United States to draw upon any of the said depositaries as he may think most conducive to the public interests, or to the convenience of the public creditors, or both.—Sec. 14, Act of 6 Angust, 1846.

Sec. 220. And be it further ena-ted, That all marshals, district attorneys, and others having public money to pay to the United States, and all patentees wishing to make payment for patents to be issued, may pay all such moneys to the Treasurer of the United States, to the treasurer of either of the mints in Philadelphia or New Orleans, or to either of the other assistant treasurers, or to such other depositary constituted by this Act as shall be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury in other parts of the United States to receive such payments, and give receipts or certificates of deposite therefor.—Sec. 15, Act of August, 1846.

SEC. 221. And be it further end ted, That all officers and other persons, charged by this Act, or any other Act, with the safe-keeping, transfer, and disbursement of the public moneys, other than those connected with the Post Office Department, are hereby required to keep an accurate entry of each sum received, and of each payment or transfer; and that if any one of the said officers, or of those connected with the Post Office Department, shall convert to his own use, in any way whatever, or shall use by way of investment in any kind of property or merchandise, or shall loan, with or without interest, or shall deposite in any bank, or shall exchange for other funds, except as allowed by this Act, any portion of the public moneys intrusted to him for safe-keeping, disbursement, transfer, or for any other purpose, every such act shall be deemed and adjudged to be an embezzlement of so much of the said moneys as shall be thus taken, converted, invested, used, loaned, deposited, or exchanged, which is hereby declared to be a felony; and any failure to pay over or to produce the public moneys intrusted to such person shall be held and taken to be prima facie evidence of such embezzlement; and if any officer charged with the disbursements of public moneys shall accept or receive, or transmit to the Treasury Department to be allowed in his favor, any receipt or voucher from a creditor of the United States, without having paid to such creditor, in such funds as the said officer may have received for disbursement, or such other funds as he may be authorized by this Act to take in exchange, the full amount specified in such receipt or voucher; every such act shall be deemed to be a conversion by such officer to his own use of the amount specified in such receipt or voucher; and any officer or agent of the United States, and all persons advising or participating in such act, being convicted thereof before any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than six months nor more than ten years, and to a fine equal to the amount of the money embezzled. And, upon the trial of any indictment against any person for embezzling public money under the provisions of this Act, it shall be sufficient evidence, for the purpose of showing a balance against such person, to produce a transcript from the books and proceedings of the Treasury, as required in civil cases, under the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to provide more effectually for the settlement of accounts between the United States and receivers of public money," approved March third, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and the provisions of this Act shall be so construed as to apply to all persons charged with the safekeeping, transfer, or disbursement of the public money, whether such persons be indicted as receivers or depositaries of the same; and the refusal of such person whether in or out of office, to pay any draft, order, or warrant which may be drawn upon him by the proper officer of the Treasury Department, for any public money in his hands belonging to the United States, no matter in what capacity the same may have been received or may be held, or to transfer or disburse any such money promptly, upon the legal requirement of any authorized officer of the United States, shall be deemed and taken, upon the trial of any indictment against such person for embezzlement, as prima facie evidence of such embezzlement.-Sec. 3, Act of August 6, 1846.

SEC. 222. And be it further enacted, That on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and thereafter, all duties, taxes, sales of public lands, debts, and sums of money accruing or becoming due to the United States, and also all sums due for postages or otherwise, to the General Post Office Department, shall be paid in gold and silver coin only, or in treasury notes issued under the authority of the United States; Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall publish, monthly, in two newspapers at the city of Washington, the amount of specie at the several places of deposite, the amount of treasury notes or drafts issued, and the amount outstanding on the last day of each month.—Sec. 15, Act of August 6, 1846.

SEC. 223. And be it further enacted, That on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and thereafter, every officer or agent engaged in making disbursements on account of the United States, or of the General Post Office, shall make all payments in gold and silver coin, or in treasury notes, if the creditor agree to receive said notes in payment; and any receiving or disbursing officer or agent who shall neglect, evade, or violate the provisions of this and the last preceding section of this Act, shall, by the Secretary of the Treasury, be immediately reported to the President of the United States, with the facts of such neglect, evasion, or violation; and also to Congress, if in session, and if not in session, at the commencement of its session next after the violation takes place.—Sec. 19, Act of 6 August, 1346.

SEC. 224. And be it further enacted, That no exchange of funds shall be made by any disbursing officers or agents of the Government, of any grade or denomination whatsoever, or connected with any branch of the public service, other than an exchange for gold and silver; and every such disbursing officer, when the means for his disbursements are furnished to him in gold and silver, shall make his payments in the money so furnished; or when those means are furnished to him in drafts, shall cause those drafts to be presented at their place of payment, and properly paid according to the law, and shall make his payments in the money so received for the drafts furnished, unless, in either case, he can exchange the means in his hands for gold and silver at par. And it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the head of the proper department immediately to suspend from duty any disbursing officer who shall violate the provisions of this section, and forthwith to report the name of the officer or agent to the President with the fact of the violation, and all the circumstances accompanying the same, and within the knowledge of the said Secretary, to the end that such officer or agent may be promptly removed from office, or restored to his trust and the performance of his duties, as to the, President may seem just and proper: Provided, however, That those disbursing officers, having at present credits in the banks, shall, until the first day of January next, be allowed to check on the same, allowing the public creditors to receive their pay from the banks either in specie or bank notes.—Sec. 20, Act of 6 August, 1846.

Sec. 225. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to issue and publish regulations to enforce the speedy presentation of all Government drafts for payment at the place where payable, and to prescribe the time, according to the different distances of the depositaries from the seat of Government, within which all drafts upon them, respectively, shall be presented for payment: and, in default of such presentation, to direct any other mode and place of payment which he may deem proper; but in all these regulations and directions, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to guard, as far as may be, against those drafts being used or thrown into circulation as a paper currency or medium of exchange. And no officer of the United States shall, either directly or indirectly, sell or dispose to any person or persons or corporations, whatsoever, for a premium, any treasury note, draft, warrant, or other public security, not his private property, or sell or dispose of the avails or proceeds of such note, draft, warrant, or security in his hands for disbursment, without making return of such premium, and accounting therefor by charging the same in his accounts to the credit of the United States; and any officer violating this section shall be forthwith dismissed from office.—Sec. 21. Act of 6 August, 1846.

Sec. 226. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts which come in conflict with the provisions of this Act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.—Sec. 24, Act of 6 August, 1846.

SEC. 227. And be it urther enacted, That all books, papers, documents, and records in the War, Navy, Treasury, and Post Office Departments, and the Attorney General's office, may be copied and certified under seal in the same manner as those in the State Department may now by law be, and with the same force and effect, and the said Attorney General shall cause a seal to be made and provided for his office, with such device as the President of the United States shall approve.—Sec. 3, Act of February 22, 1849.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

Of agreement between the Post Office Department of the United States and the Post Office Department of Canada, providing for the exchange of registered letters between the two countries.

ARTICLE I. Letters, alleged to be valuable, posted at any post office in the United States or its Territories, and addressed to Canada, or posted in Canada and addressed to the United States, and deliverable at any of the respective offices of exchange to be thence conveyed to their destination, shall be registered at the office of mailing, on the application of the person posting the same: Provided, That the full postage chargeable thereon to destination, together with a registration fee of five cents on each letter, be prepaid at such mailing office: And Provided, also, That such registration shall not be compulsory, and shall not render the respective Post Office Departments of the United States or Canada, or their revenues, liable for the loss of such letters or packets, or the contents thereof.

ARTICLE II. All such letters or packets mailed in the interior of the United States or Canada, respectively, shall be received, registered, and receipted for, as directed in the general regulations issued in each country in regard to the registration of valuable letters, and shall be sent to the respective exchange offices for the purpose of being forwarded thence by the first mail.

ARTICLE III. The respective exchange offices shall make a separate letter-bill for each registered letter, or parcel of registered letters, originally mailed at said exchange offices, or sent to them to be forwarded, as prescribed by the regulations referred to in Article II., and shall enter therein the name of the person addressed and the post office to which it is to be mailed for delivery. The postmaster of said exchange office will then mail each such letter, or parcel of letters, in the usual manner in a separate package from the unregistered letters. The letter-bills of such registered letters shall not be enclosed in the packages containing them; but shall be enclosed in a separate wrapper or envelope, scaled, and addressed to the postmaster of the corresponding exchange office.

ARTICLE IV. On receipt of registered letters for delivery or distribution at either of the respective exchange offices, the postmaster of such receiving office will compare the letters with the bill, and endorse it "correct," if it is found so, or will note the error, if there be one, in the manner prescribed with regard to registered letters received from an inland post office. He will then fill up the corresponding return bill, noting upon it whether correct or otherwise, and will see that it is returned by the first mail thereafter to the exchange office of mailing.

ARTICLE V. Registered letters received at either of the exchange offices, and destined for an inland post office, shall be forwarded in the same manner as other registered letters originally mailed at such office.

ARTICLE VI. The registration fee of five cents shall accrne to the United States Post Office Department upon all registered letters sent from the United States to Canada, and to the Canadian Post Office Department upon all registered letters sent from Canada to the United States.

ARTICLE VII. The present articles shall be considered additional to those agreed upon between the two offices on the 25th day of March, A. D. 1851, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, A. D. 1856.

Being a general description of all Nations and Countries, their Geography, Resources, Industry, and Institutions; together with a brief history of their rise, progress, and present condition. By R. S. Fisher, M.D. 2 vols. 8vo, pp. 800, 860.

MESSES, J. H. COLTON AND COMPANY employ within their own Establishment a large and efficient force of Authors, Compilers, Draughtsmen, Engravers on copper, steel, wood, and stone; and their printing from engraved plates, from lithography, and from type, is also done under their own personal inspection, requiring a large number of well-qualified persons in these various departments of labor.

Having these facilities, they are able to execute orders for Engraving, Lithographing, Printing, Map-Coloring, Mounting, and Finishing in every desirable way, and in the most satisfactory manner.

They are prepared also to furnish Maps, Charts, and Diagrams appropriate for Books of Travel, Railroad Reports, Special Descriptions, etc.
